

In Loving Memory

Robert LeRoy Parker (Butch Cassidy)

Born: April 13, 1866

Passed: April 3, 2025

Funeral Service Program

Honoring the Life of Butch Cassidy

In Loving Memory

Robert LeRoy Parker (Butch Cassidy)

Born: April 13, 1866

Passed: April 3, 2025

A legend of the Wild West, a man of daring, and a name etched into history. His story remains, even as the trail comes to an end.

Order of Service

Opening Remarks

Officiant: Rev. Jeremiah Carter

A reflection on a life of adventure and legend.

Musical Selection

"Ghost Riders in the Sky" – Performed by The Western Troubadours

Eulogy

Delivered by Wyatt Morgan, Western Historian

Readings

- Psalm 23 – Read by William "Sundance" Logan
- "The Outlaw's Prayer" – A Poetic Tribute

Musical Interlude

"Home on the Range" – Traditional

Reflections & Shared Memories

(Open floor for those who knew him best)

Closing Benediction

Final words and a cowboy's farewell.

Committal & Farewell Ride

A ceremonial ride through the canyon, honoring his final journey.

Final Resting Place

A private burial at a location unknown, much like the mysteries of his life.

"Maybe the trail never ends, just bends toward the next horizon."