

OBITUARY

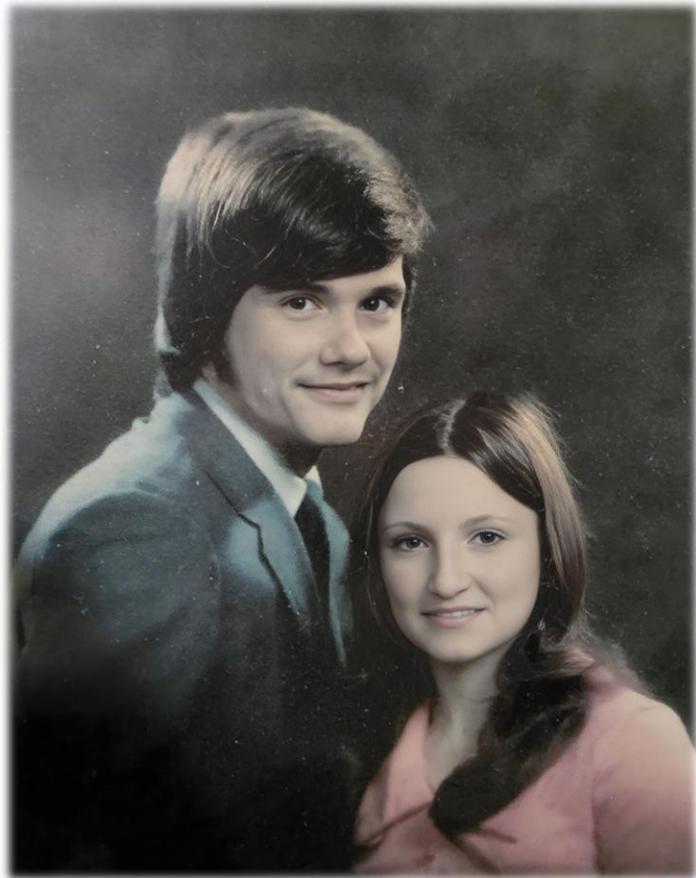

Judy Ann Morales Neal, a cherished wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on October 26, 2025, in Godley, Texas. Born on February 14, 1956, in Arlington, Texas, Judy brought joy and laughter to the lives of everyone she touched. She was lovingly known as "MawMaw" and "Grandma," roles she embraced with warmth and affection. Her infectious laugh and upbeat spirit made every family gathering a celebration, and her wonderful sense of humor will be greatly missed. Judy's passion for collecting coins and dishes showcased her unique interests, while her love for shopping brought her joy. Above all, her greatest delight was spending time with her family, a testament to the deep bonds she cultivated throughout her life.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Eugene and Helen (Ridings) Morales; her grandmother, Sammie Henson; and her sister, Nita McCurdy.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Tony Neal; daughter Deanna Starks and her husband Casey; her son Brantley Neal and his wife Jackie; and her daughter Amanda Aranda and her husband Victor. The legacy of love is carried on through her grandchildren, Kason Starks, Madison Neal, Macie Neal, Trinity Slaton, and Mallory Neal, who were the light of her life. She is also survived by her sister Margie Railey and brother Earnest Morales, along with a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends who will remember her fondly.

Judy's memory will live on in the hearts of her family and friends, as they remember a woman whose laughter and love lit up their lives.

Judy Ann Morales Neal

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
