

A MOTHER'S LOVE REMAINS

*A gentle soul, a heart so kind,
Beautiful memories she leaves behind.
With caring hands and a loving smile,
She made each moment truly worthwhile.
Though tears may fall and hearts may ache,
God called her home for Heaven's sake.
Yet love like hers will never depart,
For Josephine lives within each heart.
Her life was a blessing, her memory a treasure,
Loved beyond words and missed beyond measure.*

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The family of Mrs. Josephine Bellamy Mann wishes to express our heartfelt appreciation for every act of kindness, every prayer, every comforting word, and every expression of love shown to us during this season of bereavement. Your support has strengthened our hearts and reminded us that we do not walk this journey alone.

We are sincerely grateful to our family, friends, neighbors, church family, and all who extended themselves through visits, calls, cards, flowers, food, and countless thoughtful gestures. Each expression of sympathy has been a source of comfort and peace during this difficult time.

May God richly bless each of you for the love you have shared and the compassion you have shown. Please continue to keep our family in your prayers.

- The Mann Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

THE LIFE OF JOSEPHINE BELLAMY MANN

NOVEMBER 1, 1965 — MAY 7, 2026

“Amazing grace, how sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me...”

There are some lives that quietly become hymns of hope for everyone they touch. The life of Josephine Bellamy Mann was one such melody — a song of grace, compassion, resilience, and unwavering love. Much like the timeless words of Amazing Grace, her journey reflected redemption, strength through trials, and the beauty of God’s sustaining hand.

On November 1, 1965, Josephine Bellamy Mann was born into the world to Pelot Bellamy and Geneva Jones Smith, bringing with her a radiant spirit that would one day comfort, nurture, and inspire so many. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, her brother: James Jones; and other dear loved ones who welcomed her into eternal peace. Though their earthly presence departed before her, the love and cherished memories they shared remained a guiding light and source of strength throughout her life’s journey.

Her life became a testimony of service and compassion, marked by her gentle heart and sincere love for people. Affectionately known to many as “Jo,” she possessed a calming presence and a caring nature that made others feel seen, valued, and loved.

As a devoted Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN), Josephine dedicated her professional life to caring for others. Nursing was more than an occupation for her — it was a ministry of kindness. She served with patience, tenderness, and dignity, offering comfort during moments when it was needed most. Her healing hands and encouraging words became a source of reassurance for countless families and patients throughout her years of service.

“Amazing grace, how precious did that grace appear...”

Josephine understood the value of faith, family, and perseverance. Through life’s joys and challenges, she remained steadfast, leaning upon God’s grace to guide her path. Her smile could brighten the darkest room, and her loving spirit left an unforgettable imprint upon the hearts of all who knew her.

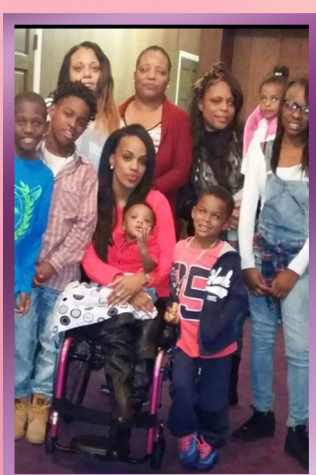

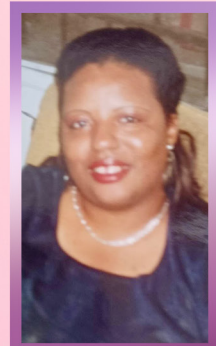

She cherished her family deeply and found joy in simply being present for those she loved. Whether through a heartfelt conversation, a thoughtful gesture, or her unwavering support, Josephine gave of herself freely and wholeheartedly. Her life reflected grace in action — humble, beautiful, and enduring.

Though her earthly journey came to a peaceful close on Thursday, May 7, 2026, the melody of her life continues to echo in the hearts of those she leaves behind. While tears may fill our eyes, we rejoice in knowing that grace carried her safely home.

“Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come...”

Josephine Bellamy Mann leaves to cherish her precious memories: her devoted Daughters: Dematrice Bellamy, Feldreka (Edward Thompson) Mann, Iesha Mann, all of Jacksonville, Florida; beloved son: Felton Mann of Jacksonville, Florida; treasured sisters: Rose Smith of Madison, FL, Jacqueline Freeman of Thomasville, GA, Crystal Bellamy of Tallahassee, FL; loving brother: Kris Bellamy of Haines City, FL; beloved aunt: Betty (Roger) Williams; beloved uncle: Corbin Bellamy; cherished 8 grandchildren: Latara Mann, Marquis Mann, Semaj Howard, Kiamarah Edwards, James Edmond, Jayquan Edmond, Jeremiah Waldburg, Tremaine Waldburg, and Kendall Davis; nephews, raised as children that was like her own: Dereal, Joe, Kendrick Alexander; nieces, raised as her own: Larketia Alexander and Karen Alexander Arnold; other devoted relatives, treasured friends, and all those whose lives were touched by her kindness, compassion, and unwavering love.

“Well done, thy good and faithful servant.”
