

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Carol Ann Brown

Carol Ann Brown, 72, of Sedalia, MO, peacefully passed away at her home on Saturday, October 26, 2024. Born on September 24, 1952, in Sedalia, she was the beloved daughter of Wyatt and Imogene (Jones) Jackson, both of whom preceded her in death.

On July 25, 1981, Carol was united in marriage to Charles Brown, who continues to reside in their home.

A graduate of Smith-Cotton High School in 1971, Carol's career began at J.A. Lamy's Manufacturing Co., where she worked from 1984 until its closure in 1998. In 2002, she found her true calling in childcare, joining Melita Day Nursery, where she lovingly nurtured children until her retirement in 2016 due to health issues. Carol had a zest for life; she delighted in shopping, baking her renowned sugar cookies and popcorn balls, and decorating her home for every holiday.

In addition to her devoted husband, Carol is survived by her two daughters, Paulla Brown of Houston, TX, and Andi Brown of Sedalia; her uncle, Donald Jones of Sedalia; four siblings: Michael Jackson of Sedalia, Alecia Luchin of Spring, TX, Bonita Nash of Sedalia, and Martin Jackson (Ingrid) of Kansas City, MO; five grandchildren: Brylenn Brown, Kyree Staten, Christopher Roseman, Keshawn Roseman, and Kaylyn McClintock; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Carol was preceded in death by her son, Michael Roseman, and three siblings: Wyatt Jackson, Jr., William "Billy" Jackson, and Donald "Tommy" Jackson.

Carol's kindness and joyful spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
