

THE Final Watch

The uniform is folded neat,
The restless ocean claims the fleet.
His tour of duty down below
Has reached the time for him to go.
He braved the dark and stormy night,
And steered the ship by compass light.
Through rolling waves and salty spray,
He held his post and led the way.
Now eight bells ring across the deep,
And gentle waters guard his sleep.
No more the watch, no more the storm,
Just quiet peace to keep him warm.
The flag is passed, the anchor cast,
His soul is safely home at last

Life is But A Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the lord

George was born on February 1, 1956, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to the late William and Shirley Blagmon. After graduating from South Philadelphia High School in 1974, George enlisted in the United States Navy in 1976, proudly serving his country for 20 years.
