Recessional

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. And where I go you know, and the way you know.

John 14:1-4

Obituary

Ciro Alfonzo was born in Havana, Cuba in a town called Coco Solo.

He was born to Lydia Maria Vera Nova and Yico Toledo. He attended school at Jose Marti in Cuba. In Havana, Ciro worked as a welder and horticulturist. In 1980 he later moved to the United States where he utilized his skills of welding and chauffeuring. He spent several years working for Security Fencing and Colerain RV.

Ciro couldn't wait to start his own family. His children meant the world to him. Ivan Alfonzo de La Vegas and Mileydi Alfonzo de La Osa (Cuba), Ebony Hall, Brenda Eubanks, and his stepchildren Roosevelt, Tony, Lisa, Niesha, and Sherry Barron, which he had with his wife Shawhan.

Ciro enjoyed family and a good time. He often showed compassion for those in need.

He gained many friends and extended family along the way. He always embraced everyone without judgment and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Ciro also took pride in cooking. He would often create meals from nothing and serve you a large plate of love that you better have eaten.

Though Ciro loved food and a good time his favorite role was that as a grandparent. He treasured his time with his grandchildren and loved being their TaTa. Never failing To take them on an adventure or give them a comical conversation.

Ciro was preceded in death by Lydia Maria Vera Nova (Mother) and Shawhan Barron-Alfonzo (wife), he is survived by his siblings (Pablo, Rolando, Raul, Tomas, Rosa, Luisa, and Maria de Carmen) 4 children, 5 stepchildren, life long friend Nerissa Eubanks and a host of grandchildren, nieces ,nephews and in-laws.

Ciro will be missed and his memory will live on in the hearts of all that loved him.

*"I told God life was getting too heavy;
He said maybe now you will put some things down
And let me carry them for you."
