LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Corey Dion Brown

Corey Dion Brown Sr., affectionately known as "Krill", was born November 13, 1977, in Vicksburg, MS to the late Lueada Hardman Brown and Mavan Brown. Corey found joy in the simple things in life. He was an avid fisherman who would spend every chance he could on the water whenever the weather allowed. When he wasn't fishing, he enjoyed relaxing on the porch sharing laughs and conversations with family and friends. Corey was known as everyone's handyman. Corey was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone in need.

Above all, Corey was a devoted father, brother, grandfather and friend. His kind heart, sense of humor and generous spirit brought joy to those around him. He will be remembered not for the hardships he faced, but for the love he gave, the lives he touched and the lasting memories he created.

Corey leaves to cherish his memories his children: Miracle Bell, Corey Brown Jr, Ebonee Brown, Kortnee Hill and Jamelia Brown. His five grandchildren. His siblings: Robert Hardman (Catherine), Angela Harris, Kelvin Brown (Slaydrian), Billy Brown, Terry Brown, Valerie Brown, Tammy Barber, Kathie Gordon, Velma Brooks, Larry Johnson, Earnest Earl Brooks and Robert Hardman; his devoted significant other, Kizzie; and a host of nieces and nephews, other living relatives and friends.

"Your Life was a blessing..."

"Your Memory a treasure."

TRIBUTES

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.*

*We thought of you yesterday
And the days before that too.*

*We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.*

*Now all we have are memories
And your picture in a frame.*

*Your memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part*

*God has you in his keeping
We have you in our heart*

-Your Children-

Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me*

I want no rites in a gloom filled room

*Why cry for a soul set free?
Grieve for me a little,*

but not for long.

And not with your head bowed low.

*Remember the love
that once we shared*

Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey

we all must take.

And each must go alone

It's all a part of the Master's plan

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely

and sick at heart

Go to the friends we all know

Laugh at all the things we use to do

Miss me but let me go.
