You asked me if I see you since I have gone away. I try to help you understand, I watch over you each day. You wonder if I hear you when you talk to me at night. I hear you say you love me; you will never leave my sight. You cry so many tears for me, they flow upon your face. Please feel me as I wipe your tears; I want a smile upon your face. Remember our sweetest memories, the times we shared with love. Hold on to all your hopes and dreams; I support them from above. Let go of all your guilt and pain, let go of all your fears. God just had other places for me—why carry that all these years? The day I passed is not the day I made you love me so. Please cherish all the memories made before I had to go. Just take the day I passed and put it in a box with care. Now hand the box to God, please, for it isn't yours to bear. Please know I'll always love you as I watch you carry on, and know that I am here with you, for we are never really gone.

Remembering Her Life

Alice J. Holbert was born on June 6, 1965, in Omaha, Nebraska, to her loving parents Robert Eugene Holbert Sr. and Alice J. Holbert. She was the youngest of ten children. She passed away on September 21, 2025.

Alice was a family-oriented, loving, and helpful person. She was always ready to help family and friends whenever they needed anything. She cherished her children and grandchildren, whom she raised as if they were her own.

She was preceded in death by her sons, Jacque Holbert III and Travis Holbert; her grandson, Jacque Holbert IV; and her brothers Nathaniel Holbert, Anthony Holbert, and Earl Holbert.

She is survived by her daughter, Janice Holbert; her son, Thomas Holbert; and her goddaughter, Sharon (Patrick) Cullum-Anderson. She is also survived by her grandchildren Jamia, Michael, Ka'Terionna Pollard, Travis Lambright, and Ty'eShawna Holbert; sisters Pamela Ross and Denise Head; her brothers Robert, Ronald, Stanley, Michael Holbert; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Together with our families, we wish to express our sincere appreciation to all of our friends and family for their prayers and acts of kindness shown during her illness and our time of bereavement.

God-Mother,

"As her Godchild, I want to share how much she meant to me. She was more than just a godmother; she was my Confidant, my guide, and my friend. No matter how far I went, she was always just a phone call away, reminding me that she loved me. I remember As a child, she'd take me on little shopping trips to the "Park Fair Mall." With the little she had, and those moments shaped who I am. I promise that I will continue to look after her kids and grandkids, loving them dearly just as she loved me. I know I will see her again someday. With all my love, your goddaughter, Sharon "T.T."
