REMEMBERING LOYAL WEST KIMBROUGH

AUGUST 7, 2022 - JULY 21, 2026

Loyal West Kimbrough, affectionately YoYo, was born August 7, 2022. He lit up every room he ran into and he was always running. In his three short years, he packed in more joy, curiosity, and mischief than most people manage in a lifetime. For mom, Winter Marshall and dad, Wassin Kimbrough, Loyal was the first to show them just how big love could be in such a tiny person.

Loyal loved being outside more than just about anything, chasing his cousins across the yard until everyone was out of breath, laughing the whole time. He was fascinated by cars of every kind, loved animals big and small. He found comfort sitting on his Papa 2 's Big John Deere Tractor, fantasizing about driving it. Often falling asleep in that fantasy, in his Papa's arms. He had a special soft spot for bugs, the crawler, the better. He was a die-hard fan of Mickey Mouse and the Mickey Mouse Roadster Racers. He loved curling up with a good book, dinosaurs, pirates, and trucks were always a hit, but his favorite was How to Catch the Tooth Fairy, which he especially loved having his GoGo read to him. Give him arts and crafts and he was in heaven, that boy loved to cut and paste everything in sight. As he grew older, he improved in finding better hide and seek locations, and stopped announcing where he was hiding! More than anything, he simply loved being a kid: curious about everything, quick to laugh, and always ready for the next adventure, especially when it meant spending time with his sister-cousins.

His earthly family, blessed to have him grace us with his brief stay here, and to have him forever embedded in our most cherished memories: his mother, Winter Marshall, and father, Wassin Kimbrough; his grandmother, Etisha "MiMi" Marshall, and grandfathers, Winfred Antwan Fleming and Muttawassin Kimbrough; his bonus Pop-Pop, Wise Fish; his great-grandmothers, Celestine "Nana" Fleming, Wanda "Mama" Sandifer and Gail "GoGo" Mason-Massey; his great-grandfather, Winfred "Papa 2" Fleming; aunts, ChaDiamond Goodman, Jazmine Charles, Brittany Sandifer, Courtney Sandifer, and Kaia Kimbrough; uncles, Amir Kimbrough, Zaire Kimbrough, Zion Kimbrough, Tyquan Fleming, Shawn Pierson, Winfred Antwan Fleming III, Wade Fleming, Trapper Fleming, Sam Charles; his sister-cousins, Soleil Gilbert, Scarlett, Randi, and Harley Charles, who he grew up with as siblings; his Godmother, KeAsia Hill, and a host of special aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He was welcomed home by family who went before him — his grandmother, Tiffany Massey Kimbrough, and great-grandfather, Randy Sandifer (Pop Pop).

Loyal, you were loved beyond measure, and you will be remembered every time someone chases a bug, races a car across the floor, cuts and pastes a craft, or runs barefoot through the grass just because it feels good. Run free, sweet boy.

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me... for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." — Psalm 136:1

The Marshall-Kimbrough family extends our deepest gratitude to every person who has walked beside us during this unimaginable journey. The love you have shown through your prayers, phone calls, visits, meals, flowers, acts of service, generous gifts, and countless expressions of compassion has carried us through our darkest days. Every embrace, every tear, every kind word, and every act of kindness has been a reminder that God surrounds the brokenhearted with His people.

Although our hearts ache beyond words, we are comforted knowing that Loyal's beautiful life touched so many in his three short years. Today, we celebrate the joy, laughter, light, and unconditional love he brought into our lives. Your presence here is a testament to the lasting impact of his precious life, and for that we are forever grateful.

We offer our heartfelt appreciation to The Ferguson-Rayam Funeral Home for your unwavering compassion, professionalism, and for caring for our family with such dignity and love. You have never treated us as clients, but as family, and we will always cherish your kindness.

To First Baptist Church of Linden, thank you for opening your doors and embracing our family with such warmth and grace. Your hospitality has provided a sacred place where we can gather to honor Loyal's life and find comfort in God's promises.

A special thank you to Pastor Tyrone and the Trinity Christian Center family for your spiritual guidance, prayers, and faithful encouragement. Your ministry has reminded us that even in the deepest sorrow, God remains our refuge and our strength.

We are sincerely grateful to Graceland Memorial Park for helping us prepare a peaceful resting place for our beloved Loyal with dignity and care.

Thank you to 360 Print Works for beautifully preserving Loyal's memory through every printed detail that honors his life with excellence and love.

We also extend our appreciation to The Gran Centurions for your generosity, support, and thoughtful contributions in helping us celebrate Loyal's beautiful life.

Above all, we thank Almighty God for the priceless gift of Loyal's life. Though our time with him was far too brief, every smile, every laugh, every hug, and every cherished memory will remain forever engraved upon our hearts. We trust that the same God who lovingly placed Loyal in our lives now holds him safely in His eternal embrace.

May God richly bless each of you for the love you have shown our family.

With heartfelt love and sincere gratitude,

The Family
