

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."

Obituary

Superintendent James Edmond Jr., born on May 1, 1934, in Cincinnati, Ohio, peacefully passed away on July 12, 2025. He was the beloved son of the late Mattie and James Edmond Sr., originally from Dublin, Georgia. James was preceded in death by his two older siblings, Herman Edmond and Inez Edmond.

At the age of 18, James proudly enlisted in the United States Air Force, where he served honorably for four years. In 1960, he married the love of his life, Sarah (McDougal) Edmond, in Cincinnati, Ohio. Together, they were blessed with four sons. He was preceded in death by his son Marcus G. Edmond and is survived by his sons Timothy W. Edmond, Cornelius T. Edmond, and Dartilous Edwards. His eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren were the pride and joy of his life.

James had a deep passion for music and spent countless hours playing the piano, filling his home with beautiful melodies. He also loved both watching and playing tennis. At 22 years old, James gave his life to the Lord, dedicating himself to a life of faith and service. He pastored under three esteemed bishops—Bishop R.S. Fields, Bishop Warren Miller, and Bishop David Harren in the Church of God in Christ. He retired from pastoring due to ill health in 2018 and started a home-based ministry to be a blessing to the community and the needy. He was a lifetime member of the Church of God in Christ.

James's life was a testament to faith, love, and dedication. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who were touched by his kindness and unwavering faith.
