A Life That Still Shines

A life lives on in all we share,
In gentle words and thoughtful care,
In hands that helped in hearts made strong,
And love that quietly lives on.

It echoes through the stories told,
The treasured moments we still hold,
The laughter cherished through the years,
The love that outlives every tear.

Though we must learn to live apart,
You have not left the loving heart,
For every kindness you once gave
Still reaches far beyond the grave.

Today we honor all you were,
The lives you touched, the love you stirred,
A faithful light, a spirit true,
That made the world more kind through you.

So, through our sorrow, may we find,
The gifts and memories left behind,
For love does not depart or end,
It changes shape and lives again.

Life Reflections

[15]Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead, they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. [16] In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.
Matthew 5:15-16

Brittany Michele Redd, loving daughter of Stanley L. Redd and Pamela B. Redd entered into this world on December 19,1986 and peacefully transitioned on Tuesday, September 22, 2026, surrounded by her loving family and friends. She was a 2006 graduate of Reidsville Senior High School and attended Guilford Technical Community College. Brittany was a CNA for many years, who cared for her clients and treated them as if they were her family. She later became an employee of Cone Health (Annie Penn) as a Nurse Tech, where she remained until her health declined.

Brittany was an active member of Jerusalem United Holy Church, where she participated in the junior choir, sunshine band, YPHA, youth praise team, young adult choir and mass choir. In 2026, she later joined Harvest City Church in Greensboro, NC.

Brittany was a person who loved the Lord, was a giver and enjoyed spending time with friends and family. The joy of laughter filled any room she walked in. She was a very humble person and had a remarkable ability to connect with both children and the elderly. The profound impact she had on others was evident throughout her life.

Family members who preceded her in death are; grandparents, Oscar & Parnell Redd; Charlie & Brona Broadnax; aunt, Delphine Hamlet; uncles, Kenneth Redd and Marvin Broadnax; cousins, Broncade Bethel and Deleigh Redd Martin; godmothers, Savannah Morgan and Cozetta Johnson.

Tributes To Brittany

Some people come into your life and become part of who you are. Brittany was that person for me.

She was my best friend, my sister, and one of the greatest gifts life ever gave me. We shared years of laughter, inside jokes, long conversations, and countless memories I will carry with me forever.

We always joked that we were really just elderly ladies trapped in younger bodies-Edna and Pearl, complaining about everything, ready for bed far too early, and probably happiest just sitting around talking. Somehow, that silly little joke became my favorite part of us.

Her family-Pam, Stanley, Michael, and Kevin, always treated me and my family as though we were part of theirs. They welcomed us with love, kindness, and open arms, and I will always be grateful for the way they made us feel so loved.

Brittany, my girl, I will miss you for the rest of my life. I hope you knew how deeply you touched everyone who had the privilege of knowing you. I will see you again someday, and what a beautiful reunion that will be.

I will love you forever and always,
Pearl

Dear Brittany,
I will miss you and all of the good times we had, like when you took me trick or treating last year. When you always had a place for me to stay when I came over and how you still got me a birthday present even while you were sick. I will love you forever and always.
Zenobia!!

Brittany – I miss you so much. I wish you were still here. I'm forever grateful you got to be a part of my life and all the memories we had. I'll be thinking of you always. We always had fun. My favorite was when we went swimming.
I Love You,
Kyleigh

Brittany Redd I love you, Precious and Uncle Stanley.I like it when we sing and dance and have Halloween parties. You are having fun in heaven with my poppy. I miss you so bad. I gave precious a hug yesterday.
I love you,
Mila
