MARCUS'

Life Story

Marcus Dupree Taltoan, 34, of Coatesville, Pennsylvania, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, August 28, 2025. Born on November 22, 1990, in Coatesville, Pennsylvania, he was the beloved son of Vonda M. Taltoan and William B. Miller.

Marcus grew up in Coatesville and attended the Coatesville Area School District. From an early age, his humor, quick wit, and contagious smile left lasting impressions on everyone he met. Marcus had an incredible way of brightening a room—if you knew him, you almost certainly left with a laugh, a story, or a memory worth holding on to.

Beyond his humor, Marcus was deeply intelligent and curious. He loved reading, researching, and picking up random facts—he always seemed to know a little something about everything. A hard worker, he was proud to have earned his CDL and continued learning to operate different types of machinery. His love for music led him to record rap tracks with his cousin Brian, and his passion for cars sparked dreams of building a collection one day.

Marcus also had a unique sense of style and took pride in his appearance. He loved watches and jewelry, always carried himself with confidence, and rarely went anywhere without smelling good. Fitness was also important to him, and he found joy in working out and weightlifting.

Marcus was preceded in death by his sister, Charnise Martin Taltoan; his grandmother, Jane Hawkes; and his grandfather, Wayne Taltoan.

He leaves behind his greatest treasures—his children: Nyla Taltoan and Dupree Taltoan of Parkesburg; Mazyii Taltoan and Marcus Taltoan, Jr. of Quarryville; and Ariel Mulan Wilkerson of Coatesville. In addition to his parents, he is also survived by his siblings,

Javon Taltoan, Aaliyah Taltoan, and Damarron Oshae Miller; his grandmother, Sarah Sunderland; his cousins who were more like brothers, Brian Adger; Mark Smith, Jr.; Shane Little, Dwayne and Dameir Taltoan; his uncles, Dion Stoke, Pat Miller & Dwayne Taltoan; his aunts, Norma Butler, Dawn Hogan and Tonya Brister; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.

Though Marcus's time with us ended far too soon, his laughter, intelligence, and love will forever live on in the hearts of all who knew him. His memory will continue to shine brightly through his children and the countless lives he touched.

Sincerely, The Family

IF I WOULD HAVE KNOWN

*I still see you in
The places we would go
Like your face is painted on the walls
I've been trying to forget
All the moments that we spent
'Cause now I do it on my own
Oh, you and I were like the summer
But now it's winter here on my own
If I would have known
That you wouldn't be here anymore
I would have made the moments last a little longer
'Cause now I'm alone
And you're just a memory in my mind
I would have given anything to say goodbye
If I would have known
I remember how
We would laugh all the time
But now you're not around
And I'm just trying to find
Something else to fill
The empty spaces you left behind
But nothing ever seems to work
I've been thinking 'bout
The things that you used to say
Even not around
You're in my head every day
But it's fine I don't mind
I promise I'll be okay*
