Darlene Marie Elizabeth Dorion

Mar. 22, 1947
Aug. 25, 2022

Mom, Darlene Eagle Woman Dorion was born on March 22nd, 1947 in Leoville Saskatchewan to Toni Leach and Severe (Swiss) Villeneuve. She lived in numerous places throughout her life including Sheridan, Wabowden, Thompson and The Pas. She passed away peacefully with family by her side on August 25, 2022 at age 75 after a brief battle with cancer. She loved all her children, grandchildren, chapans, great chapans, and great great chapans, as well as everybody she came into contact with equally. Mom's biggest passions was to cook. The second you entered the house she'd say "make yourself at home. Did you eat? Are you hungry?" Whether it be holidays, birthdays, or simply an evening with family playing cards, she'd always make the biggest feasts, and wasn't happy until everybody was full. She was the best cook ever, volunteering in multiple community events and feasts during the year. Everybody loved her famous cabbage roll casserole and meat balls. During Christmas she'd spend hours preparing and baking pies and cookies for people to enjoy.

Mom had a joy and love for work. Over the years she spent her time at Manfor, The Met Cafe, and St. Paul's as a house keeper, where she met numerous friends.

One of mom's biggest hobbies was playing bingo. She loved playing bingo especially with her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. As well as trying her luck at all the monster bingos over the years. If she won, she'd always give us a little bit, cause in her eyes it wasn't right to be greedy.

Mom loved her hockey and baseball. She was always the loudest in the stands, as she cheered on her children and grandchildren. It was through the community, where she got her nickname "Gramma D"

One of mom's happiest days, was marrying the love of her life Donald Albert Dorion on December 23rd, 1966. They would often hold hands and whisper to each other "I love you ol' man/ol' Lady." As mom and Dad got older they opened their home to numerous foster children. Together, they made the decision to adopt Dwayne, who they raised as their own. Dwayne was mom's baby, who never left her side.

Darlene is survived by her children: Lucille, David (Patricia), Dean (DeeDee), Dwayne, Rhonda, daughter in-law Nancy Dorion, her grand children, great grand children and great great grand child. Brothers: Frank Villeneuve (Margaret), David (Sputnik) Villeneuve (Rose), Dennis Leach.
