

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While I'm thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time you think of me I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand, that an Angel came and called my name
and took me by the hand.
She said my place was ready in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind
all those I DEARLY LOVE.

But as I turned and walked away, a tear fell from my eye,
for all my life I always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, I had so much to do.

It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could re-live yesterday,
I thought just for a while,

I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your HEART.

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

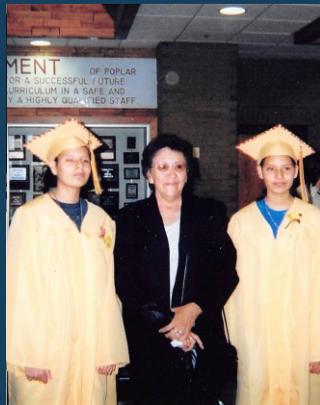

Our beloved mother, grandmother, sister, auntie, cousin and dear friend left this world on October 31, 2024. This beautiful soul leaves behind so many broken hearts. She loved whole heartedly and cherished all of her relationships with her family, friends, and coworkers.
She was born in Box Elder, Montana on June 12, 1942 to Jacob Bighorn and Jane Half Red. She joined many loving siblings, cousins and relatives. She graduated from Brockton High School and was a very exceled student.
After high school, she married Michael Wayne Youngman Sr. In that union, they had four children, Mitchell Wade, Michelle Youngman Wilsey, Michael (Speedy) Wayne Jr. and Muriel Wynn Youngman.
Upon returning to her home reservation, she learned and became a CNA. She worked at the Poplar Hospital for twenty-eight and a half years. She made so many friendships and took care of her patients the best way she could.
She raised her grandchildren, and gave them a stable and happy home life. For that, she will be forever missed.
She married Dorrance Scott and had an amazing and loving marriage. Also, he left the world early, grandma kept living and love.
We grew up at missionary meetings, ladies aid, or the nursing home. Grandma made sure we loved others more than ourselves; it was an amazing gift she granted us.
Grandma treasured every phone call, visit, and adored her family. She leaves behind so many to mention. But first and foremost, she is joining her sons, Mitchell Wade, Michael (Speedy) Wayne Youngman Jr.; her parents, brothers, sisters, and an enormous amount of family. She is rejoicing in such happiness. We will miss her more than she will ever know, you are truly loved.

My mother is a treasure
 that I carry in my heart,
 Her memory is safely kept within.
 All the love she spent on me
 is held in sweet reserve;
Every kiss & every touch
 and every precious grin.
 I'll miss the many things she was,
 the special things she did.
 Each one will be remembered gratefully.
 Though I will miss her through the years,
 I'm comforted to know.
 She's with her LORD.
 We'll meet again and share eternity.
