

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Deatha
L. EVANS-WILLIAMS

My Sweet Girl,

*Do not worry for me.
I am resting in a place of peace
where my spirit is light.*

*Carry me with you
in your laughter,
in your strength,
in the love that has always
lived between us.*

*When the sun warms your face
or a quiet moment finds your heart,
know that I am near.*

*Live your life fully, my daughter.
Smile big, love deeply,
and keep moving forward.*

*A mother's love
does not end with goodbye.*

*It simply walks beside you
in a different way.*

PALLBEARERS

Armund D. Moore Armund S. Moore
Bryson Moore Robert Hardiman III
Aaron Moore Keith Moore
Sylvester Ellis

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

During these most difficult hours family and good friends are truly a blessing. We thank God for the precious gifts of love, family and friendship.
We thank each of you for reminding us that the unchangeable love of God is a fountain of strength and serenity.

May God richly bless each of you as
He continues to sustain us is our prayer.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES ENTRUSTED TO:

1101 E. Bannister Rd. | Kansas City, MO 64131 | SFHKC.com

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Deatha
L. EVANS-WILLIAMS

October 9, 1982 – February 21, 2026

FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 2026

Visitation: 1:00 PM | Funeral Service: 2:00 PM

SERENITY FUNERAL HOME

1101 E. Bannister Road | Kansas City, Missouri 64131

Vealta

L. EVANS-WILLIAMS

Vealta L. Evans Williams, 43, of Kansas City, Missouri, passed away peacefully on February 21, 2026. Her time on this earth was far too short, but the love she shared and the joy she brought to others will continue to shine brightly in the hearts of all who knew her.

Born on October 9, 1982, in Kansas City, Missouri, Vealta was the cherished daughter of Alfonso Evans and Deborah D. Moore. She grew up surrounded by family, community, and deep-rooted Kansas City, while spending some of her childhood in Sacramento, CA. She was a graduate of DeLaSalle High School and later continued her education at the University of Phoenix.

Vealta dedicated many years of her life to serving others as an Environmental Services Technician. Her friends and coworkers truly enjoyed working with “V” as they called her, appreciating not only her professionalism but also the warmth and friendship she brought to every day.

Vealta’s loved ones will forever remember her radiant smile and her unforgettable, quirky laugh—one that could light up a room and lift even the heaviest of spirits. She found joy in the simple things: traveling and spending time with her family, sharing laughter, and cheering on her beloved Kansas City Chiefs. Game days were more than football—they were moments of togetherness, celebration, and love.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Deborah D. Moore; her father, Alfonso Evans; her brother Alex F. Evans and her maternal grandparents, Betty and Alvin Moore. Though she has reunited with them, her presence remains deeply felt here.

Vealta leaves behind a legacy of love through her daughter, Kayvon Shell; her brother, Armund Moore; her sister, Shaneka Hardiman; and her treasured grandchildren, Jaxton M. and Carmuan C. She is also lovingly remembered by a host of nieces, nephews and great nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends who will forever carry her memory in their hearts.

Order of SERVICE

- Processional “I Need You To Survive”
Scripture/Prayer Pastor Dimitri Brockman
Musical Selection “You Save Me” (Alicia Keys)
Poem Andrea Lockett
Obituary Read Silently
Soft Music (Wind Beneath My Wings)
Acknowledgments/Condolences Keisha Burnett
Remarks 2 minutes
Musical Selection “Deliver Me” (This is my Exodus)
Video Selection Vealta’s Life Memory
(Missing You)
Words Of Comfort Pastor Dimitri Brockman
Recessional “A Change is Gonna Come”

MESSAGE FROM HER DAUGHTER:

Mama, thank you for always being my biggest cheerleader near or far. I knew I could always count on you to lift me up when I needed it most. My anchor turned angel; you are finally free.

