LIFE'S REFLECTION

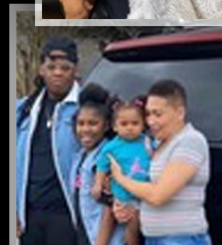

BERNADETTE

NARCISSE WILLIAMS

Bernadette Narcisse Williams was a native of Franklin, La. Residing in Maurice, La. She was born August 8, 1968 to the late Albert Narcisse and Joyce Willis Narcisse. She was married to T. J. Williams, III on August 4, 1990. This union blessed them with four children. Bernadette was a graduate of Morgan City Senior High School. She worked in the food industry for many years. Her passion was cooking for her family. Bernadette spoiled ALL the children in the family. Her favorite T. V. show was Maurie. "TaTa" as she was affectionately known to her family and friends, was loving, prideful, and fisty. She was a small women, but in everyone's heart that loved her, she was a GIANT.

She leaves to cherish her memories; her loving husband T. J. Williams, III of Maurice, La.; two sons, T. J. Williams IV of Maurice, La., Tremar Jeremiah Williams (Ny'Keytra) of Patterson, La.; two daughters, Travon Jazel Williams of Breaux Bridge, La., and Treona Hazel Williams of Breaux Bridge, La.; three grandchildren, Marianna Griffin of Baldwin, La., Island Hartman of Breaux Bridge, La., A'Mauri Kennedy of Patterson, La.; three sisters; Annaleascha Narcisse Elmore of New Iberia, La., Reponzala Narcisse Smith (Kevin) of Leesville, La., Vanessa Narcisse of Franklin, La., one brother, Burnell Narcisse (Judy) of Berwick, La.

Preceding her in death are her parents Albert Narcisse and Joyce Willis Narcisse, grandparents Albert Willis and Leola Fine Willis; granddaughter Ke'Myri Williams; two aunts Audrey Jenkins and Lois Randle-Washington, one uncle Morris Swan, Jr.

Tribute from son (T. J. Williams IV)

God blessed me with an angel that I could always talk to no matter what. She was small with a big heart. Loyal and loved her family. She was always ready to help in any way she could. My mother was the BEST mother any one could ask for. I'm happy that she was chosen to be my mom. She disliked no one. She always accepted everybody.

She was loved by everyone.

Until we meet again..... World's Greatest Mom!
