

The Storm is Over

It's over now, It's over now,

I feel like I can make it.

The storm is over now.

No more cloudy days, they are all gone, gone away.

The storm is over, now.

If I walk alone, I am not on my own,

The storm is over, now.

No more crying at night, No more sickness in my body,

The storm is over, now.

No more sickness in my body, No more tears, heartache, and pain.

No more suffering, It's over, now.

The storm is over, now.

Obituary

Dorothy Michelle Simmons was born on January 9, 1960, to Bettye Simmons, and Amos Gaines. Dorothy departed this life on September 2, 2024, at her home in Cincinnati, Ohio

Dorothy's early days were spent living and enjoying the simple life, playing with her older sister Barbara and her Auntie Doris.

Dorothy attended Lincoln Heights Elementary School, Princeton Junior High School, and later graduated from Scarlet Oaks High School, with a degree in Dry Cleaning.

Dorothy was well-known in Lincoln Heights, where she lived and had many friends. Her favorite thing to do was to hang out with family and cheer them on, as they played cards, horseshoes, etc. Her VERY favorite thing to do was to spend time with her son, Tony. She also enjoyed hanging out with her Mom and Step-Dad, on all holidays.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her stepfather, Willie L. Simmons; her grandmother, Marie Grice; her sisters: Barbara G. Grice and Shirley Marie Simmons; her brother, Terry L. Simmons; her uncles: George Grice, Jr. and James L. Grice.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her memory: one son, Anthony L. Simmons (Rachel Smith); two granddaughters: Antwanette Simmons, and Kae'Shawn Simmons; mother, Bettye Simmons (Azell Mitchell); brothers: Donald Simmons (Zina Simmons) and Timothy Simmons (Tallahassee, FL); uncle, Mike Trabue (Lynn Trabue); aunts: Carol Grice (Baltimore, MD) and Doris McBride (Miami, FL); three nephews: Tywan Simmons, Jason Simmons, and Marquice Simmons; one niece, Chanetta Simmons; one great-niece, Chamari Simmons; one great-nephew; Xai'Quan Simmons-Malone; special friend; Gwendolyn Shelton; as well as, a host of other friends, and relatives from Georgia and Florida.

Do Not Cry for Me

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I am not sleep.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.
