THE LIFE OF

Jose Luis Piña
Esparza

1968 - 2026

Jose Luis Piña Esparza was a man of unwavering faith whose greatest joy in life was his family, especially his beloved children. He was born on January 27, 1968, in Mexico to Juan Piña and Maria Esparza. Raised alongside nine siblings in humble circumstances, Jose's early years instilled in him the enduring values of hard work, perseverance, and the importance of family.

On December 20, 1986, Jose married Maria Piña Alvarez Hernandez. Together they built a life centered on faith, love, and steady devotion to one another. Through every season of life, they shared a partnership marked by sacrifice, commitment, and the blessing of raising five children together.

Jose worked tirelessly throughout his life, first in the roofing industry before relocating his family to Altus, Oklahoma, to be closer to loved ones. There, he began an 18-year career with Tyson Foods, where he became known as a dependable and hardworking employee. No matter how demanding his workdays were, his family always remained his highest priority.

Jose savored every moment spent with those he loved. His home was a place where everyone felt welcome, and he found great joy in bringing people together around the table. An exceptional cook, he delighted in preparing meals for family and friends, believing that the best conversations happened while breaking bread together. Gatherings were often filled with music, laughter, dancing, and memories that will be treasured for generations.

A man of remarkable generosity, Jose was always the first to lend a helping hand to family, friends, or anyone in need. His love for his children knew no limits. He willingly sacrificed his own comfort to ensure they had everything they needed, often giving up his own portion so they would never go without. His life was a beautiful reflection of selfless love, steadfast faith, and a father's unwavering devotion.

Jose passed from this life on Friday, July 24, 2026, at the age of 58. Those left to cherish his memory include his beloved wife of nearly 40 years, Maria Piña Alvarez; his children, Jesus Antonio Piña (Anna), Luis Carlos Piña, Angel Misael Piña, Norma Ortiz (Mateo), and Monica Janeth Martinez Piña (Jorge); his cherished grandchildren, Ana Piña, Daisy Ortiz, Vanessa Ortiz, McKenzie Ortiz, Fernando Martinez, Eduardo Martinez, Bella Martinez, Alex Martinez, Nayeli Piña, Adriel Piña, Javier Piña, Ariella Rice, and Carlos Pantoja; his treasured great-grandchildren, Aileen DeJesus and Evelyn Granados; siblings, Juan Piña, Ruben Piña, Miguel Piña, Magdaleno Piña, Maria DelCarmen Piña, Maria De Los Angeles Piña, Lourdes Piña, Ricio Piña, and Olga Piña; his lifelong best friend, Javier Aguilar; as well as a host of extended family members and dear friends who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts.

Jose will be remembered not only for his tireless work ethic, but for the kindness he extended so freely, the joy he found in serving others, and the unwavering love he poured into his family. His legacy will forever live on through the lives he touched, the family he cherished, and the example of sacrificial love he so faithfully demonstrated.
