

God Saw You Were Getting Tired

God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be, so He put his arms around you and whispered "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer and saw you fade away. Although we loved you dearly we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us He only takes the best.

To know you was to truly love you. A proud, loving, feisty, outspoken woman who took no mess from anyone. A woman so soft, loving, and gentle that a simple touch could wipe away all worries. A woman so loud, charismatic, and funny that would have your cheeks hurting from smiling, from just a short conversation. A woman so family-coded, so successful, so Frieda I am so lucky and blessed to call you my Nanna/grandma. As hard as it has been to say goodbye, I hold my head high knowing the type of woman you have helped me become and I'm so thankful and grateful to have had such a powerhouse, firecracker like you guiding me. I love you and this isn't goodbye; it's see you later.

Sweet-Sweet

Obituary

Frieda Ethel Hoffman was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on March 10, 1935, to the union of Oscar & Sadie Walker. Frieda went to be with the Lord on Friday, February 21, 2025 at the age of 89.

Frieda attended the old Woodward High School where she graduated in 1953 and went on to Nursing School, where she received her LPN license.

Frieda was a spirited woman, who would let you know what was on her mind! She genuinely loved life and her family!! In her leisure time, she loved to have BBQ's and get-togethers with family and friends. She also had a green thumb for her plants.

Frieda gained her wings to enter the Gates of Heaven to join her husband William Herschel Hoffman, Jr., and her son, Eric Vincent Hoffman.

Frieda leaves to cherish her memories, her sons, William Herschel Hoffman III (Gretta), Michael Keith Hoffman, two granddaughters: Ebony Michelle Hoffman, and Paris Nicole Hoffman, one sister-in-law: Jean West, one step-grandson: Leonard Dejuan Tucker, she also leaves behind a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
