Life REFLECTION

Queen Ester Garnett, lovingly known as Jimmysue to her family and friends, was born on January 12, 1954, in Moncks Corner, South Carolina, a daughter of James Garnett and Albertha Brown Garnett. On August 21, 2024, she peacefully transitioned from this life at the Medical University of South Carolina Hospital, Charleston, SC.

Jimmysue was a vibrant soul who had the unique gift of brightening every room she entered. She had a passion for cooking, and her love for good food was as abundant as the love she had for children. To her, children were a treasure, and she created a haven for them, where they were free to laugh, play, and be themselves. In Jimmysue's eyes, her home was their home, a place where they were always welcome and where joy and laughter filled the air.

Her love for family and friends was evident in the way she lived her life. Whether it was a cookout, a party, or any gathering, Jimmysue was the life of the event, bringing joy, laughter, and warmth to all those around her.

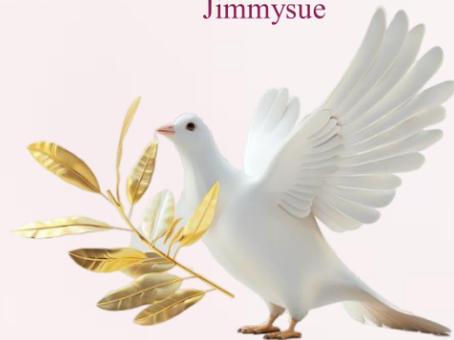

Jimmysue will be remembered for the love she gave and the lives she touched.

Jimmysue leaves to cherish her memory her beloved sons, Rickie Garnett (Jeanette) and Maurice Garnett; adopted son, Toby Brown; special sons, L. T. Brown and Damon Brown; her loving sisters, Margie Garnett (her backbone) and Clara Mae Lynch; and her dear brother, Ronnie Dubose. She also leaves behind her treasured grandchildren: TJ Garnett (Shannon), Jamai Garnett, Kevin Garnett, Jazmine Garnett, Kayson "Boss" Garnett, Kanya Thomas, Khole M., Zada Brown, Diamon McNeil, Jalah Garnett, and Andree Garnett; and her cherished great-grandchildren: Xy Keeve, Amir, Donny, and Tega. Additionally, she is survived by her devoted daughters-in-law, Alverta Jenkins-Garnett and Gretta Garnett, her special nieces, Latasha S. Thomas and Lynette Thaxton; her best life-long friend, Nathaniel Grant; and a host of extended family and friends.

Jimmysue was preceded in death by her two sons, Jerrell Garnett and Thyrone Garnett. Her memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

I've gone home my loved ones,
I am great, my loved ones.
I loved living and life,
But I did not come to stay.

Love You All,
Jimmysue

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO.

*When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little – but not for long.
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that once we shared.
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we must all take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know,
Laugh at all the things we used to do.
Miss me, but let me go.*
