

How Did He Live?

*Not, how did he die, but how did he live?
Not, what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a person as a person, regardless of birth.
Not, what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
Was he ever ready, with a word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not, what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?*

OBITUARY

Anthony T. Porter (71) was born in Cincinnati, Ohio on July 27, 1948. He was better known as “TT” to most friends and family.

TT attended Hughes High School and received his diploma.

TT was a nature man at his finest. He loved the great outdoors, nature, and wildlife. Deer, foxes, cats, and dogs were family to him. TT loved parks with Eden Park and Burnett Woods being two of his favorites to visit. He also loved music and singing. One of his favorite songs was “It’s Raining Men” by the Weather Girls.

TT was into staying fit which stopped him from aging past 45. He looked 45 the remainder of his life. He would walk 50-100 miles a day. He survived 20 years off the fruits of the land. He would always say, “never get to comfortable in life because it keeps going no matter what. If you know better, you’ll do better.” And “Bang!!” was his favorite expression.

TT was preceded in death by his father John Porter; mother Jean Richardson Nelson; two sisters: Kimberly Porter and Marlyn Morrison.

TT is survived by sisters: Mollie Porter, Regina Solomon, Ruby Porter, and Debbie Porter; brothers Demetris Porter, Chipper Porter, and Darrin Porter; and a host of nieces and nephews.
