

GONE FROM OUR SIGHT

God saw the road was growing weary,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He gently closed your weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
Though we cannot see you now,
And our hearts are filled with pain,
We find comfort in God's promise
That we shall meet again.
Your love remains our guiding light,
Your memory our treasured part.
For though you've left this earthly home,
You live forever in our hearts.

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

The family of Claude Carl Miller wishes to express our sincere appreciation for every act of kindness, every prayer, every visit, every phone call, and every expression of love shown to us during this difficult time.

Your comforting words, thoughtful gestures, and unwavering support have strengthened us more than you know. As we celebrate Claude's life and legacy, we are grateful for the many lives he touched and for the love that continues to surround our family.

May God richly bless each of you for the kindness you have extended to us.

With Heartfelt Gratitude,

The Miller Family

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude for the trust you have placed upon us during the Homegoing Service of your loved one. Our fervent hope is that all measures of assistance rendered to your family have been completed in detail. For all your confidence placed in our staff and me, we will be forever grateful.

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CLAUDE CARL MILLER 1962 - 2026

Claude Carl Miller was born on October 30, 1962, in Belle Glade, Florida, to the late Doretha Brown Miller and Charles Marshall. From the very beginning, Carl carried a gentle spirit and a heart full of compassion—qualities that would shape his life and touch every person blessed to know him.

Raised in Belle Glade, Carl received his education through the local school system and quickly became known as someone who genuinely cared for others. He had a natural gift for connecting with people, making them feel seen, valued, and welcomed. Whether through a warm smile, a kind word, or a helping hand, Carl lived a life rooted in love, generosity, and service.

Carl never met a stranger. His presence brought comfort, laughter, and ease to any room he entered. He was the kind of man who would stop what he was doing to help someone in need, no matter how big or small the task. His kindness was not occasional—it was who he was. His compassion was not selective—it was extended to all. His heart was truly one of gold.

On August 10, 2017, Carl married the love of his life, Raquel Miller, and together they built a bond grounded in devotion, respect, and unwavering companionship. Their union was a blessing—one filled with shared dreams, quiet joys, and a deep, enduring love that will forever remain in Raquel's heart.

Family was the center of Carl's world. He loved deeply, supported faithfully, and encouraged wholeheartedly. They were all his pride and joy, and he poured into his family the same love, strength, and compassion that defined his life. To his siblings, extended family, and friends, Carl was a steady presence-dependable, uplifting, and always willing to listen.

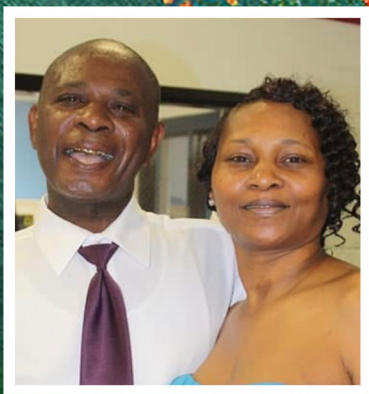

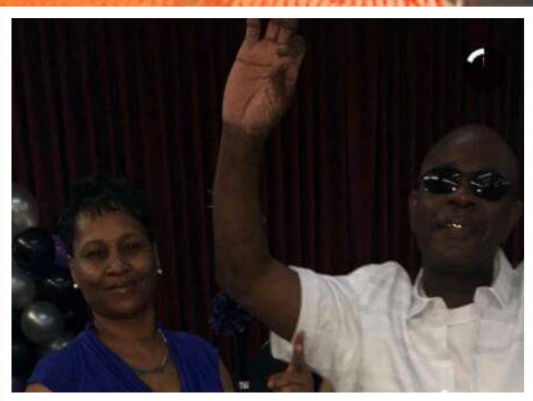

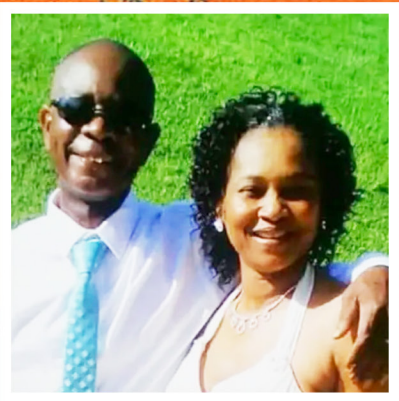

Carl departed this earthly life on May 30, 2026, surrounded by the love he so freely gave. Though his physical presence will be deeply missed, the legacy he leaves behind is rich and enduring. His laughter, his kindness, his generosity, and his unwavering love will continue to echo in the hearts of all who knew him.

*"Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near."*

He leaves to cherish his memory his devoted wife, Raquel Miller of Tallahassee, Florida; his children, Carl Miller, Jr. of Tallahassee, Florida; Lashawndra Robinson of Augusta, Georgia; Katoria Stokes of Tallahassee, Florida; Markis (Ashley) Miller of Thomasville, Georgia; Ciara Williams of Tallahassee, Florida; and Freddie Williams of Tallahassee, Florida. He is also survived by his siblings, Irvin (Marcia) Miller; Charles (Eileen) Miller of Columbus, Ohio; Vanette Miller of Dania Beach, Florida; and Brenda McKenzie (Derrick) of Pahokee, Florida; along with 11 beloved grandchildren, his sister-in-law: Tamara Bennett of Tallahassee, Florida; a host of nieces and nephews who adored him; and a special aunt, Brenda Bryant.

Carl was preceded in death by his loving parents, Doretha Brown Miller and Charles Marshall.

Though our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in knowing that Carl's love, laughter, and beautiful spirit will forever remain with us. His life was a testament to kindness, compassion, and the power of a generous heart. His legacy will continue to inspire all who were blessed to walk beside him.

They say that Life is not a sprint, but a marathon.
Looking at the love gathered, Unc, you have won.
So, I won't shed tears of sadness because you're gone.
For now just rest, you deserve it more than anyone.
I will shed tears of happiness knowing that you are at peace.
And take comfort in knowing that from the pains of this life you have been released.
We're assured that you now reside in God's eternal memory.
So I will carry my memories of you until next we meet.
