"A Silent Tear"

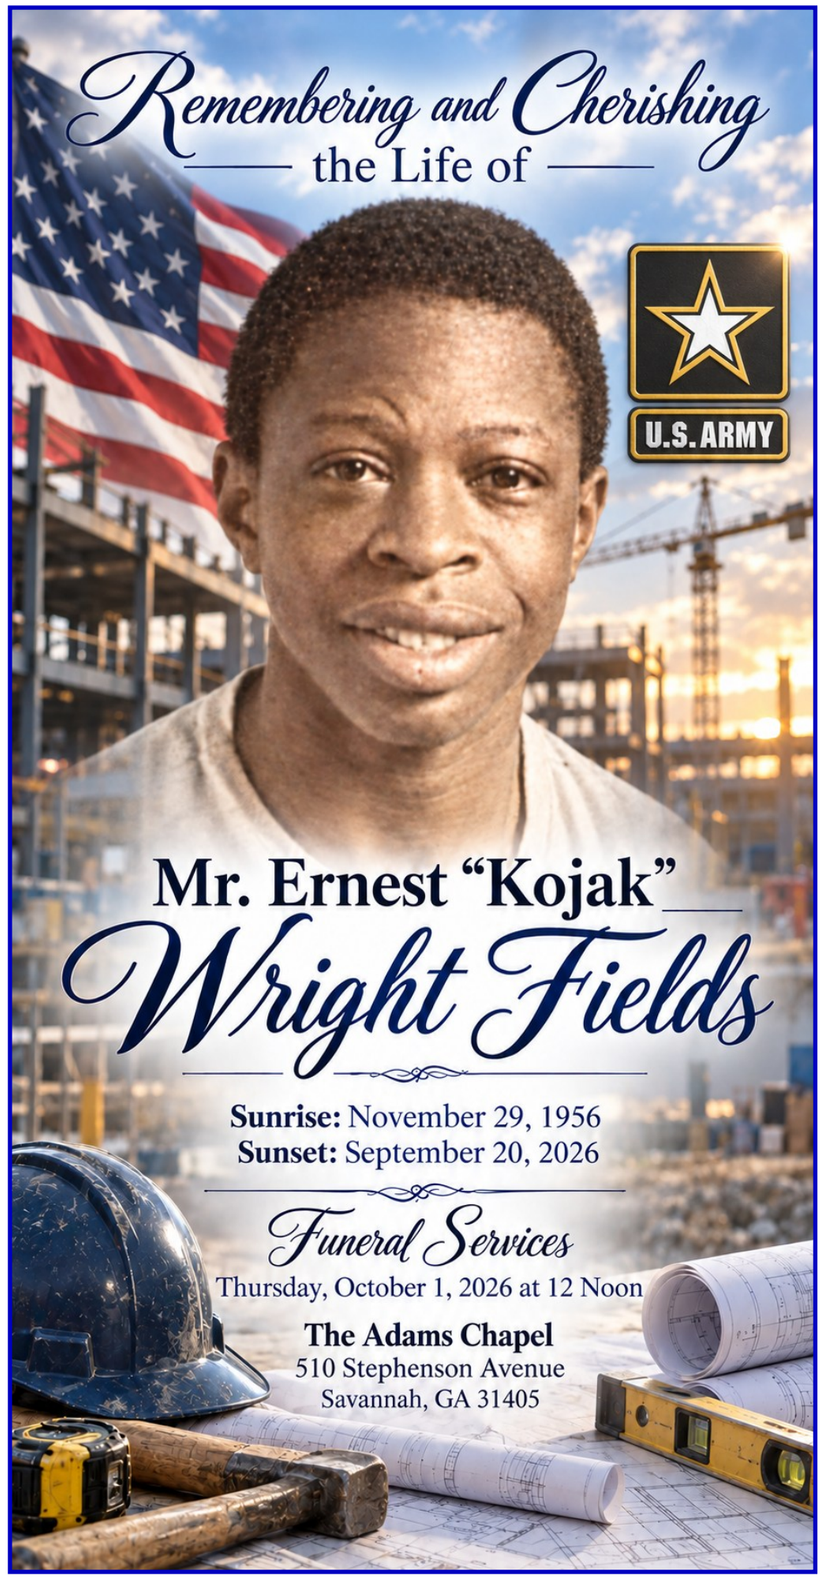

by Gaynor Llewellyn

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind
Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "UP ABOVE".

Obituary

Ernest Wright "Kojak" Fields
November 29, 1956 – September 20, 2026

Ernest Wright Fields, affectionately known to everyone as "Kojak," passed away at his home on September 20, 2026. He was born on November 29, 1956, in Savannah, Georgia.

Ernest was a lifelong resident of the Savannah area, where he shared his warmth and vibrant spirit with everyone who crossed his path. He was educated in the Chatham County School System, which helped lay the foundation for a life characterized by hard work and dedication. He also served in the Army. Ernest contributed his skills and talents to the construction industry and demonstrated a strong work ethic that was admired by many. In his spare time, he enjoyed riding his bicycle throughout Savannah, spending time with friends, sharing laughter, and creating treasured memories of friendship and camaraderie.

Ernest leaves to cherish his memory his five children: Ernest Tyrone Fields (Sheeran), Kiwana Singleton, Latashia Fields, Shawntrell Fields, and Roeisha Barkley; three sisters: Rosalee Graham-Fields, Janet Parker, and Priscilla Grant; and four brothers: Clarence Fields (Jean), George Fields (Jeannie), Dennis Fields, and Damon Grant. He also leaves five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish his memory. Ernest shared a special bond with his dear friend, Miss Sherrie Tillman.

Ernest was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest and Annabel Fields, whose love and guidance helped shape the man he became, as well as his two brothers, Charles Fields and Michael Fields.

Ernest's warmth, vibrant spirit, strong work ethic, and love for family and friends will remain in the hearts of everyone who knew and loved him.
