

To The Best Daddy Ever

God looked around his mansion and found a empty place He then looked upon the earth and saw your weary face He put his arms around you, and lifted you to rest GOD'S mansion must be beautiful, he has always liked the best He saw the road was getting rough, and the hills were hard to climb So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered

"COME HOME CHILD BECAUSE YOU ARE MINE"

It broke my heart to loose you, but you didn't go alone For part of me went with you THE DAY GOD CALLED YOU HOME.

While in your resting place, kiss and tell Momma and Grandma I love them.

"THANK YOU DADDY FOR EVERYTHING"

You always went over and beyond to make sure I not only had what I needed but also what I wanted.

Till we meet again
With all my heart,

Love you,
Davetta L. Chambers

Celebrating His Spirit

The life of David F. Chambers Jr. began on October 25, 1948 and spanned over 75 years. He was born to the late Marie Francis Harper and David F. Chambers Sr. He was a graduate of Hughes High School.

David married Carol J. Chambers in 1974. From that union their daughter Davetta L. Chambers was born.

David was a Christian and believed in GOD. He was employed at General Motors for 38 years and was a UAW member. David also known as "Iceberg Slim" loved his alligator shoes, leather and tailor made suits.

With his bubbly spirit he enjoyed spending time with his general motor co-workers, watching sports and traveling but above all he loved spending time with his daughter Davetta L. Chambers also known as "Snook".

Left not to mourn but to cherish his memories are his children, Davetta L. Chambers and David F. Chambers III, brothers Abdul Karim Ajamu (Donald Jones), Mark Chambers, Shawn Chambers, Rodni Chambers a sister Andrea Chambers and a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends.
