THE LIFE STORY OF

Semiah

CHRISTINE RED

Semiah Christine Red was born August 20, 1992 to Marcella Wideman and Kelvin Lenomyen Redd. The morning she was born I knew she was going to be tall and beautiful. She always had a smile on her face.

She was diagnosed with sickle cell but that never kept Semiah from doing all the things children do. She was a tough cookie, she was always the life of the room no matter where she was. She attended Butterfield Elementary and was a very happy young lady.

Semiah had a lot of siblings, which two of her siblings passed away. Her siblings Kelvin Redd, Kevion Redd, Deshun Jones, Demia Edington, Deborah Richardson, A'Alyeerah Morgan, and Dy'Amon Bre Bre Morgan. She always tried to love hard, and she was very giving.

She later became a mother herself of five beautiful children, to whom she is survived by Chances, Ceriah, Mesiah, Cash, and Zion Campbell together with Chanse Campbell. She loved her grandmother Ella and they had special nick names for each other. I will truly miss my hugs from her. I truly miss her singing because she knew she couldn't, but to her it sounded like an angels voice and we loved it.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother Marcella, grandparents Ella Chase, Barbara Watkins, Eugene and Emelbra Redd, and a whole host of family & friends. Her cousins who were like siblings to her will miss her as much as we do. She has a whole host of aunts and uncles who will truly miss her as well. I'm praying the journey from here on out will be comforted knowing she's in no more pain and God will be with us always until we meet again. I love you Semiah! Your favorite thing to say to me was I love you and give me kisses.

Tributes

Memories

Known for her infectious laughter and love for gathering. Many often said that flowers were nature's way of smiling.

*Her backyard always bursting with colors,
was a testament to her green thumb and her rest for life.*

*We all have our own special personal and loving memory of Semiah.
Watching her grow from a baby into a grown young lady and a mother she had become. I'm going to miss seeing those eyes that were as round as a 50 cent piece.*

Rest in Paradise Little Cousin, Love LaRonda

*Your Love is My Love
If tomorrow is judgment day
And I'm standing on the front line
And the Lord asks me what I did with my life*

I don't know about most people but my older sister was so fun! Our relationship started off kind of rocky because she felt like my mom babied me & let me get away with things Semiah couldn't. But I was the youngest! Could you blame mom?? Despite the fact that Semiah was resentful towards me in the beginning and used to bully me every chance she got; as I got older her love for me got stronger than ever. The envy she showed in her adolescence grew into a hedge of protection! Semiah was always so fun. We did everything together from swimming, skating, bowling, going to the park, the movies & even a little stuff my mom would frown upon. Like if she found out that we were up after the street lights came on and Semiah & I along with my middle sister, Demia (rest in peace), were still outside. Just like an alarm clock, jellybean never let us forget our curfew and how upset and worried our mom was going to be if we didn't get our tails home. Semiah was such a light to our home. If you were down she would know just how to cheer you up. If you were angry she knew how to calm your emotions and became a peacemaker. Her love for flavor flav was disturbing but her jokes could put anybody on the floor in laughter. Like how she's already 5'11 and trying on heels that make her 6 inches taller. My brave sister gave me 5 beautiful nieces and nephews to love and cherish forever. I will never forget you sis and for you, I will try to be the best Daughter/auntie/granddaughter & mother I can be.

Your legacy will continue! Rest in peace Queen Leo...

Love you - Debbie
