

REFLECTIONS OF HER LIFE

Josephine Scott

Josephine (Jo) Taylor Scott, a beloved matriarch, community pillar, and devoted servant of faith, entered into eternal rest on Saturday, December 6th, 2025. She was 87 years old.

Born on February 20, 1938, in Eastover, South Carolina, she was a cherished daughter of the late John and Eliza Taylor. Josephine's life was a beautiful tapestry woven with faith, service, love for her family, and an extraordinary talent for bringing people together, often around a table filled with delicious food.

She was educated in the public schools of Richland County and graduated from Hopkins High School in 1958. A woman of strong work ethic and camaraderie, Josephine dedicated many years to Square D Company, from which she retired, forming friendships that lasted a lifetime.

Josephine's faith was the cornerstone of her life. As a longtime and faithful member of New Light Beulah Baptist Church, she served with joyful dedication. Her voice lifted in praise as a member of the Jubilee Choir, but perhaps her most impactful ministry was through her gifts of nourishment. For years, she proudly served as the Head of the Kitchen Committee, ensuring that every church event was supported with excellence and hospitality. Her legacy is also sweetly remembered through her extraordinary cakes, which were lovingly requested for church events, weddings, and family gatherings, adding a special touch of her love to every celebration.

At home, Josephine found joy in the simple beauties of life. She cultivated a peaceful haven with her beloved plants and took immense pride in her yard. She had an eye for quality jewelry, and her greatest pleasure was found in cooking for the ones she loved, a tangible expression of her deep and caring heart.

Josephine's greatest love was her family. She leaves to cherish her memory and continue her legacy: her three devoted children, Jacqueline B. Scott, Leila S. Boulware, and Windy M. Scott-Thompson; her four adored grandchildren, Quinn L. Brown, Edrick T. Thompson, Jr., Evan D. Thompson, and Kira L. Boulware; her siblings: James (Henrietta) Taylor, Katherine (Adam) Reese, Pauline (Clyde) Bouknight, Eliza Jones, Moses (Jenney) Taylor, and Cornelia (Hezekiah) Green; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers; John, Odell and Willie Frank Taylor.

I MISS YOU MOM

I thought of you with love today,

But that is nothing new.

I thought about you yesterday,

And days before that too.

I think of you in silence,

I often speak your name.

All I have are memories,

And your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake,

With which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping,

I have you in my heart.
