CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Lloyd 'LB' McKean

October 2, 1942 ~ August 20, 2025

In loving memory of L.B. McKean

"Under the Wide Wyoming Sky"

Written in the Spirit of the American West

HE LIVED WHERE THE WIND
CARRIED STORIES,
WHERE THE PINES BENT
BUT NEVER BROKE.
THE WEST WASN'T A BACKDROP,
IT WAS LIFE,
ENDURING AND DEEP
AS THE RIVERS THROUGH STONE.
A COWBOY KNOWS THE SADDLE
AND THE SILENCE,
A FRIEND TO THE LAND, NOT ITS MASTER.
HE RODE WITH THE SUN AT HIS BACK,
AND THE HORIZON ALWAYS JUST AHEAD.
NOW THE TRAIL HAS TURNED,
BUT HE RIDES ON
BEYOND FENCES, BEYOND SORROW,
INTO THE WIDE WYOMING SKY.
FOREVER PART OF THE LAND HE LOVED
WHERE THE WIND STILL WHISPERS HIS NAME.
