LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading Isaiah 25: 6a, 7-9 Pam Fassione

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples. On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples, the web that is woven over all nations; he will destroy death forever. The Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces; The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the Lord has spoken. On that day it will be said: "Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us! This is the Lord for whom we looked; let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 103

J. Cotter (#84)

The Lord is kind and mer - ci-ful; the Lord is kind and mer - ci - ful. Slow to an - ger, rich in kind-ness, the Lord is kind and mer - ci - ful.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 15: 20-23 Cindy Saunders

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life, but each one in proper order: Christ, the first fruits; then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ.

The Word of the Lord. R. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Please stand F. O'Carroll (#413)

V. The Lord be with you R. And with your spirit.

V. A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Gospel Matthew 11: 25-30

At that time Jesus answered, "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned, you have revealed them to the childlike. "Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

The Gospel of the Lord.
R. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

R. Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

All are welcome to this sacred place and liturgy. The Catholic understanding of Holy Communion as the very Body and Blood of Jesus Christ limits the reception of the Eucharist to those who, accepting this belief, have properly prepared for this sacred moment. Our brothers and sisters of other faiths are invited to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest to receive a blessing.
