"Thundering White Hawk Woman"

Our beloved sister, daughter, mother, niece, cousin and friend is now with our Creator flying high above the sky watching over us all. She is present, giving us the strength to move forward, giving us hope that life will give us purpose, and giving us direction to follow the right path, a path sadly one cut short for our beautiful angel, Harmony.

Harmony had a heart of gold, she loved everyone and touched so many lives. We must let her go on her journey home. Harmony will be flying high with the Eagles. - Her sister Hillary McKenzie-Sinclair

She had a contagiously kind heart, a warm smile and an unforgettable laugh. She was strong, smart, outgoing and adventurous. Harmony graduated RDPC in Thompson, she attended Red River College completing aboriginal transition, her health care aid and unit clerk. Harmony practiced her traditions with her mentor Lydia Bland. While she was walking the red road, she was able to help her friends who needed her strength and support she was able to go to school, have a child, and live a sober life.

With Harmony's sudden passing she left behind a daughter Amanda Lapensee, her sisters Hayley, Hillary, Heather and Gabriel McKenzie-Sinclair. Her mother Charmaine Sinclair and father Brian McKenzie, Grandmother Karen Bland and Myra McKenzie. Her auntie Ashley Robertson and Bernice McKenzie, Uncle Clayton Robertson and Jeff McKenzie, along with many loving and caring cousins.

She was predeceased by her grandfathers Ronnie Sinclair and Frank McKenzie; and many other family members too numerous to mention.
