Suzanne was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, friend and caregiver whose kindness touched countless lives. Suzanne dedicated much of her life to caring for children and had a true gift for making every child feel loved and safe. She was also a St. Norbert Hockey fan and longtime season ticket holder. She rarely missed an opportunity to go to the games, cheering on the team with her family and friends. She was a proud member of Christian Mother Society of St. Mary Church, Luxemburg, where her faith and compassion shined through in everything she did. Above all, Suzanne will be remembered for her warm heart, selflessness, strength and the love she so freely gave to everyone. Her legacy lives on in the many children she helped raise, the family she cherished and the countless memories she created.
