Annette's Life Reflections

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." - 2 Timothy 4:7

Mrs. Annette Juneth Davis-Pontoon (affectionately known as Weasel), the eldest of five daughters of the late Mr. Eddie Lee and Mrs. Janie Mae Daily Willis was born August 25, 1962, in Boston Massachusetts. On Wednesday morning, at the Brigham & Women's Hospital in Boston, MA, an Angel whispered, "Sleep my child, for I have come to take you home; rest my child and listen to that sweet melody, It is well with my soul."

Annette grew up in the Mission Hill Development of Roxbury Massachusetts. After completing high school, she continued her studies at various institutions. Having been reared in a Christian home with a loving and influential mother and grandmother, she learned the values of serving God at an early age. While living in Massachusetts she was affiliated with several churches.

She was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Ervin Davis on January 24, 1983. This union was blessed with a loving and devoted daughter. The family relocated to Virginia shortly thereafter while serving in the military.

Annette lived in Saint Mary's, GA and later relocated to Jacksonville, Florida where she resided for many years... On June 4, 1994, she was joined in holy matrimony to Zemulist Pontoon, Sr. This union was blessed with two bonus sons.

Annette has always been business-oriented and possessed the skills needed to succeed in the entire business arena. Her passion as a business owner inspired her to pursue ownership in several businesses. She established several businesses in Jacksonville, Florida including a florist and a boutique (227 Boutique) for which she catered to both in-store and online clients. Annette was also employed as a Resolution Specialist for various agencies.

In 2022, she and her husband followed their dreams, built their dream home, and relocated to Atlanta, Georgia, where she resided prior to her passing. While living in Georgia, she decided to expand her business.

Annette leaves to share precious memories: Her husband of 30 years, Mr. Zemulist Pontoon, Sr., of the home; a loving daughter; Mrs. Chanel Davis (Michael Jr.) Johnson of Jacksonville, FL; two precious and adorable grandsons, Alfred Scott IV and Michael Johnson III, both of Jacksonville, FL; two bonus sons, Mr. Zemulist Pontoon, Jr. of Florida and Jason Pontoon of Hawaii; four loving sisters, Ms. Phyllis Willis of Quincy, MA, Ms. Cynthia Willis and Florette Willis, both of Worcester, MA, and Ms. Sherry Willis of Boston, MA; her mother-in-law, Ms. Martha P. Batey of Aiken, SC; four loving aunts, Mrs. Christine Daily Sparks (whom she forever regarded as a second mother) of Brockton, MA, Mrs. Deloris Daily (Theodore) Jamison of Holly Hill, SC, Ms. Mary Cook of Detroit, MI; and Ms. Jestine Sapp of Aiken, SC; three loving uncles, Retired Orangeburg County Summary Court Magistrate, Samuel (Lue) Daily of Holly Hill, SC, Mr. Moses Willis of Georgia, and Mr. Kris Edwards of Germany; one great aunt, Ms. Willie Mae Dailey of Holly Hill, SC and a host of nieces, nephews, extended relatives, and friends.

TO MY WIFE
I Love You Always & Forever

Meeting you was fate,
becoming your husband was a choice,
but falling in love with you was beyond my control.
In you, I found the love of my life.

You were and always will be.
The thing that ever happened to me.
If I could give you one thing in life,
I would give you the ability to see yourself.
Through my eyes,
Only then would you realize how special you are to me.

I LOVE YOU ALWAYS & FOREVER - ZEMULIST

MOM THE MOMENT THAT YOU LEFT ME

My heart split in two.
One side filled with memories,
The other side died with you.
I often lay awake at night,
when the world is fast asleep,
And take a walk down memory lane.
With tears upon my cheek.

Remembering you is easy.
I do it everyday
But missing you is a heartache.
that never goes away.
I hold you tightly within my heart,
and there you will remain.

You see life has gone on without you.
But will never be the same.

I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU MOM - CHANEL

Dear Grandmom, You were a mother and grandmother before anything else. I remember you and I laughing over the silliest things. I remember the last time I saw you well. You and I had some special alone time to talk, and you were so happy for me. We told funny stories, and you held my hand. I would give anything to hold your hand once more.

When you got sick, I wanted to stay by your side every day. I remembered hearing you calling me telling me you loved me for the last time, even though I couldn't see you. I remembered myself telling you how much I love you and how proud I am of you. I am still so proud of your strength, love, and faith. You were one of a kind grandmom and such a blessing. You are the best grandmother I could have ever asked for. You are no longer sick, and you are at peace. That gives me peace. I feel your presence with me every day. I know that you are now my Guardian Angel, and you will never leave my side. I miss you. I will hold you in my heart forever and ever. Thank you for being my beautiful grandmother.

We Love you Grandmom, AJ, and Mike

Acknowledgement

With full hearts and joyful spirits, the family acknowledges with grateful hearts all acts of kindness expressed during our time of bereavement. Words cannot adequately express how your visits, calls, cards, prayers, outreach, and inspirational messages have encouraged and comforted us. A special thank you is extended to Aunt Tina for all your support, compassion and care you provided for our beloved Annette. You were truly a mother in her time of need. Thank you to the staff of Brigham and Women Hospital, Boston, MA for your meticulous, guided care. God bless everyone for your prayers.
