

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

James Wilbur Harrison Jr., blessed this earth on March 19, 1963, in Cincinnati, Ohio through the union of James Wilbur Harrison Sr., and Betty Jean Harrison. James was the second of three children, Deginea, James, and Kino Harrison.

James was preceded in death by mother Betty J. Harrison-Dawson, and step-father Steve Dawson Jr., and Morris E. Jones brother in law.

James attended South Avondale Elementary. James graduated from Woodward High School. While there he played the trumpet in the school marching band. He then went to work for Local 12 T.V. News Station as a Photo Journalists. He was there for 45 years. And an active employee until his passing. James AKA Junior the name his family and friends called him. He always wanted to be the best and greatest at what he did.

He saw a great deal of the world and was able to get along with everyone he met. He had a sense of humor and enjoyed making Jokes. He was always lending a helping hand to anyone in need. He loved grilling out by the pool entertaining everyone while listening to his favorite songs. " And you better not touch a black man's Radio" Laugh. His love and memory will forever live in our hearts.

James leaves to cherish his memories through his son Jason A. Harrison, granddaughters Jurnee, Madisyn, and Kinsley Harrison; sister Deginea Jones; brother Kino Harrison Sr., (Felicia) and host of nieces, nephews.
