"Weep Not for Me"

Weep not for me, though I have gone

Into that gentle night.

Grieve if you will, but not for long,

Upon my soul's sweet flight.

I am at peace, my soul's at rest;

There is no need for tears.

For with your love, I was so blessed

For all those many years.

There is no pain, I suffer not;

The fear is now all gone.

Put now these things out of your thoughts–

In your memory, I live on.

Remember not my fight for breath,

Remember not the strife.

Please do not dwell upon my death,

But celebrate my life.

Obituary

Adonis Audie Moore (Donnie) was born on Thursday, January 16, 1958, in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was the eldest son of Barbara L. Moore and the late John Moore.

Donnie accepted Christ at an early age. He joined New St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church as a child and later often attended Jerriel Missionary Baptist Church.

Donnie graduated from Western Hills High School in 1976, where he was a talented athlete. He entered the workforce at the early age of 16, starting at Buster T. Brown as a cook alongside his brother Tony.

In 1980, Donnie graduated from the Cincinnati Police Academy, pursuing a career that aligned with his passion for helping people. He protected and served the citizens of Cincinnati as a Cincinnati police officer for over 15 years.

After his career as an officer, he held various roles in the manufacturing industry, including a position at Reliable Casting. He relocated to Annapolis Junction, Maryland, for a few years to join his brother Thaddeus and his family. He returned home to Cincinnati in 2006 to continue working in various manufacturing roles and spend time with his ever-growing Cincinnati family.

His most recent role was at Mercy Health, where he met his fiancée, Maydel Belvins, who helped care for him throughout his illness.

Donnie cherished his family deeply, and they cherished him. He was blessed with five children, 10 grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Donnie enjoyed the unwavering love and support of his family throughout his life. He adored the many big family gatherings they shared during holidays, sports events, and various life events. Each laugh, adventure, comforting thought, and act of support served as a true testament to their bond and love for one another. However, no one in the family was immune to his constant capping and joking.

Donnie had a passion for fishing and proudly taught several of his nephews the art of the catch. He also enjoyed sports, dining out, and helping others. Many frequently gave testimony to how his presence made a difference in their lives.

He passed surrounded by the love and prayers of his family members. He was 68 years old.

Continued Obituary

Donnie is survived by his beloved mother, Barbara Moore; his children, LaDonna, Grecia, Brandy (Elton), Kimberly, and Adonis Jr.; his grandchildren, Toni, Brandon, Antawon, Anthony, Elton Jr., Nora, Kimberly, Parker, Kamara, and Adonis III; his great-grandchildren, A'mya, Skylar, Ny'aylia, Bohanna, Brandin, and Braylen; his brothers, Tony (Debbie), Thaddeus (Cynthia), Felix (Tracey), Kiyon (Melea), Eugene (Laura), and Tommy; his sisters, Cassandra (Marvin) and Tosha; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, loved ones, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Mary B. Lewis; grandfather, Terrel Lewis, Sr.; father, John Moore; uncle, Terrel (Rickey) Lewis; and stepbrother, Johnny Moore.
