

A FINAL GOODBYE TO DAD

In the quiet moments, when the world is still,
I hear your voice, a gentle whisper,
A reminder of the love you instilled,
A bond that time will never sever.
You taught me strength, you showed me grace,
With every step, I feel your embrace,
In every smile, I see your face,
In every challenge, your courage I trace.
Though your chair sits empty,
Your presence remains in our hearts forever,
In every memory, in every refrain,
A father's love, like an endless chain,
Binding hearts, despite the pain.
Today we gather, hearts heavy, eyes wet,
To honor a life we'll never forget,
A father, a friend, a guiding light,
Whose love will carry us through the night.
Rest now, dear father, your work is done,
But in our hearts, You're never gone
For a father's love, though he departs,
Lives on forever, in our hearts.

REMEMBERING
THE LIFE AND LEGACY
Michael
G. STOWERS

Michael (Mike) G. Stowers born on May 20, 1952 to the union of the late Sam Stowers, and Jean Stowers.

He attended St. Peter ES, and graduated in June 1970 from Bishop Gorman High School, which lead him to the University of New Mexico State.

During Michael's adolescent years he played a variety of sports (baseball, basketball & football) that shaped him into having a love for sports. He enjoyed attending games at UNLV & Bishop Gorman and spent a lot of time on the golf course.

He was gainfully employed throughout his life: Valet Parking attendant at the Las Vegas Country Club, Stardust Hotel & Casino, The Excalibur Hotel and Casino.

Michael always welcomed everyone with a big smile, and lots of knowledgeable advice. He believed in the each one teach one; always trying to help anyway that he could.

Michael is survived by his mother Jean Stowers, his daughter Tekeesha Stowers, Grandson Derrick DeCoud and son Jiovanni Stowers-Romano. His beloved brothers Steve Stowers, Terry Stowers, Nieces Minyawn York, Latoya Lomax, Latonya Lomax, and Nephews Stephon Stowers, Steven Stowers, and Terry Stowers Jr.

Welcoming Michael into Heaven is his father Sam Stowers, Grandmother Johnnie Mae Dollar and Grandfather George Dollar.

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

If tears could build a stairway and memories were a Lane,
We would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again.
No Farwell words were spoken, no time to say a final Good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it, and only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache in sadness, and secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.
But now we know you want us, to mourn for you no more,
To remember all the happy times....

Life still has much in store, we pledge to you today,
A cherished place within our hearts, is where you'll always stay!

PRAYER

Gracious Lord,
We entrust Michael into your loving care, May their soul find rest in your presence - where there is no pain, no sorrow, only eternal peace and joy. Lord, be with us as we mourn and grant us the strength to carry on with faith. Though we say goodbye for now, we hold fast to the promise that we will meet again. Until that day, may Michael's love continue to shine through us, and may your peace be our comfort and guide.
-Amen
