

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Gail Grier was born on January 13, 1956, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Paul Grier and Elizabeth Grier. She had nine siblings. She was preceded in death by her brothers, Dolphus Gerolds and Daniel Gerolds, and her sister, Dorothy Dawson.

Leaving behind to cherish her memory are her brother, Larry Gerolds; and her sisters, Linda Bryant, Shirley Gerolds, Janice Goodloe, Edith Grier, and the youngest, Denise Grier; along with her son, Daleshun Grier; her granddaughter, Shacaira Britten; and her great-grandsons, Amarion Britten and Jaylen Britten.

Gail went to Hughes High School and was a homemaker most of her life. She was known for keeping a clean house. Anybody who knew her would agree.

Gail enjoyed shopping with her mother and big sister Dorothy on the weekends, going to Value City and Tri-County Mall, where they would shop until the workers had to put them out, LOL. She also loved to talk on the phone with her sisters and friends.

Gail loved her music and dancing. One of her favorite bands was Chicago. She loved looking at the music award shows and other TV programs, and she looked at her church shows on Sundays.

Gail loved her food, and she was a foodie. She loved to eat out from time to time and loved her some Alabama Fish Bar on the weekends with her sisters and her son.

Gail was a woman of principle. She wasn't a drinker or smoker and believed in the Lord. Gail always loved to greet you with a smile and sometimes joke with you.

Gail leaves behind her only child, Daleshun, whom she loved with all her heart, and her granddaughter and great-grandsons, along with her Aunt Anne J. Miles. She is the last of her mother's siblings and is a treasure to the family, along with all Gail's nephews, nieces, great-nephews, and great-nieces.

Gail will live on in our hearts forever. Amen.

A Mother

is someone who can take the place of everyone else,
but no one in the world can take her place.
