Obituary

"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit"

Psalm 34:18

Mrs. Corine Griffin was born July 21, 1930, to the late Isaiah and Artlee Triplett in Philadelphia, Mississippi. She graduated from Hopewell High School in Neshoba County and was a lifelong, faithful member of Mt. Nebo M.B. Church, where she also served in the choir. Corine worked for First Baptist Church until retiring, often saying it felt more like a second family than a job.

She later married the love of her life, Henry Griffin, and through their union was blessed with two bonus children, Henry Earl Griffin and Berlene Griffin, whom she loved as her own. Corine enjoyed walking, sewing, relaxing on the porch, talking with close friends, and dipping her Levi Garrett snuff.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Henry Griffin; her children, Henry Earl Griffin and Berlene Griffin; her sisters, Ruby Dean Stribling and Eva Mae Morris; and her brothers, L.T. Triplett and Elma Triplett.

Corine leaves to cherish her memory two nieces, Barbara (John Wayne) Pickens and Sheila Morris; close friends Luella Davis, Mary Ola Leach, and Juanita Moore; great-nephews Johntrill Pickens and Johnathan Pickens; great-nieces Erica Pickens, Arrissa Baxter, and Selisa Morris; and great-great niece, Eryon "May Pop" McBeath; along with grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and other loving relatives and friends.

A Faithful Servant

at Rest

*She walked with grace and trusted God,
Her faith her daily guide,
A gentle heart, a servant's soul,*

*With Christ she did abide.
She served the church
with willing hands,
Her love both true and strong,*

*A faithful voice within the choir,
A life of sacred song.
Though earthly work is now complete,*

*Her rest is richly earned,
For heaven called His child home*

Where pain is never learned.

*Now joined again with those she loved,
Beyond this mortal test,
We find our peace in knowing this:*

God's servant is at rest.

We Love You, Your Family
