Dylan was born Sunday, September 14, 2003 at St. Boniface Hospital in Winnipeg Manitoba. He was born to Karen Head and the late Raymond Dorian. He was the youngest son of five older brothers Tyson, Jordan, Darwin and the late Gerrod.

Dylan lived with his mother Karen at the Pridelands of Big Eddy. He attended the Hilda Young Headstart program as part of his early learning journey. He then attended Joe A. Ross School and for high school transferred to Oscar Lathlin Collegiate. He loved spending time with his mother, Karen his brothers and his nephew Gerrod and nieces Adriana, Aurora and Kennedy. He also spent quality time with his best friends Chloe, Roxanne, Elise, Erin, Colleen and Jackie.

Dylan's easy going and forgiving nature always attracted his friends and family, as he enjoyed doing activities and spending time visiting, laughing and joking around with everyone. He enjoyed cooking for his family as a favorite pastime and he loved dancing and listening to music. Dylan loved going for walks with his mom whether it was going shopping with her or accompanying her to appointments.

Dylan always made everyone feel welcomed and he loved all his nieces and nephews but he mostly liked to play online games with Kimberly and June Bug. When they were little he always made sure everyone was not left out. Some of his favorite TV shows were Seven Deadly Sins, Pokémon, Bob's Burgers, Big Mouth and Shameless, and he was very kind hearted and gentle.

Sadly, his health became a concern when he was diagnosed with kidney disease at a young age of 5. He began attending appointments to receive dialysis before his 19th birthday. Over a year of struggling with his health he passed away at home at the age of 20 years.
