

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, phone call, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a floral piece; if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just the thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS

Lillian Currie Hill

Lillian Currie Hill (Sweet Child) was a caring and loving soul who believed in God and family. She was born November 8, 1939, in Yazoo City, Mississippi. She gave her life to Christ at an early age and served as a mother at St. Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Lillian C. Hill attended both St. Francis Catholic School and Yazoo City Training School. At the age of 16, she moved to St. Louis, Missouri. While there she met and married Sammie Hill. Their union was blessed with two children, Rachelle and Reginald. Lillian spent almost 17 years residing in St. Louis before returning to Yazoo City, Mississippi, to establish permanent roots on her family's land on Stewart Ridge Road. Throughout the years she worked in various occupations. Among her proudest accomplishments were owning Gentleman George Cafe and serving her community as a foster parent. Yet, among all of her accomplishments, nothing compared to the joy she found in being a mother and grandmother. Her home was a place where family, friends, and even those she had just met were welcomed with open arms. She was known for her love-filled cooking, thoughtfulness, quick wit, and the warmth she extended to everyone who entered her home.

Lillian C. Hill was preceded in death by her husband, Sammie Hill, her son, Sylvester Lamb (William), her parents, Sallie Jones and David Curry, Sr., and loving grandson, Adolphus Zachary, Jr. She was the last of her six siblings to depart this earth: Eddie Curry, Sr., David Curry, Jr., Bertha Mae Curry, Margaree Curry, Christine Curry, and Tommy Curry.

Lillian C. Hill leaves to cherish her memory one daughter, Rachelle Hill and one son, Reginald Hill (Meko); five grandchildren, Ashley Johnson (Johnny), Azia Hill, Alexander Hill, Sr., Ashton Woolfolk, and Ayanna Hill; eight great-grandchildren, Xavier and Evelyn Johnson, Nevaeh and Aylanna Zachary, Azai and Alexander Hill, Jr., and Asher and Amelia Woolfolk.

She will truly be missed by a host of friends and family including a bonus daughter, Michelle Brown; a caring niece and nephew Yolanda Faye Curry and Eddie Curry, Jr.; special cousins Corretha Waters, Katrina Albert, and Bessie Webbs; extra-special life-long friends, Corinthia Dixon and Rosie Doby.

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

A Letter to Mom

God gave me a second chance to see you through.

You carried me when I didn't know what to do.

You told me all of my life, "Reggie, do what's right."

You even let me have a wife . . . who knew she would be you - part 2 holding me to higher standards than even you.

I'll miss you mom, but the path is clear.

You and Grandma raised a Man.

I'll hold this family together till we join you both – in the Promised Land.

With Love, Your Son Reginald

To Our Granny

Granny, thank you for teaching us that life's greatest treasures were never the expensive things, but the simple moments we shared together.

Thank you for every laugh that filled the room, every sly remark that made us smile, every warm plate and every hug that reminded us we were deeply loved.

You believed in us long before we believed in ourselves. You encouraged us to chase our dreams, even when it meant we had to be miles away from you. Your love was never selfish – you wanted to see us grow, succeed, and become the people you always knew we could be.

You prepared us for so many things in life – with your wisdom, your strength, your faith, and your unconditional love. But the one thing we were never prepared for was a world without you.

Though our hearts ache, we are forever grateful for the memories you've given us, the values you've instilled in us, and the love that will remain with us always. We will carry your lessons, your laughter, and your legacy wherever life takes us.

Until we meet again, thank you for being the greatest Granny we could have ever asked for.

Forever loved, forever missed, and forever in our hearts.

Love Always, Your Grandchildren

The Broken Chain

We didn't know that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you; you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories; your love is still our guide.

And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;

but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love Your Children
