Amanda Pearl Sanderson

August 31, 2022

Amanda Pearl Sanderson was born Thursday, May 2, 1996 at the Women's Hospital in Winnipeg, Manitoba, to mother Josephine Sanderson (Juppy) and father Lloyd Hunter. She was raised by the late Vivian Hunter until she was 11 and moved back with her mother at the age of 11 years, where she lived in Moose Lake.

Amanda met Austin Grey; at a young age and they had 3 beautiful kids together and then she moved to Winnipeg.

Amanda had a good up bringing and a lot of teachings. She was so heart broken and took a lot of hurts with the loss of her little sister, Hannah. They were close at heart.

Amanda is going to be so missed by those that knew her and the people around her. She was a little shy being in a crowd of people but she got things done. Amanda has had a hard life but showed us not to give up. She also went visiting in Nelson House every once in a while, but she always came back. She said she didn't feel at home.

Amanda enjoyed spending time with her babies, walking around and visiting. She loved and missed her babies so much.

She enjoyed listening to music and dancing to her music. She would put others before herself. She was a clean freak, complained a little too much at times but in all, the memories, pictures of her will always be cherished. She will always be in our hearts. We will love her always.

Amanda passed away Wednesday, August 31, 2022, at the Health Sciences Centre, Winnipeg, Manitoba, at the age of 26 years.
