

OBITUARY

Gina (Olivas) McNearney, a beloved and cherished member of her community, passed away peacefully on May 24, 2025, in Burleson, Texas. Born on June 8, 1936, in Tornillo, Texas, Gina lived a life filled with love, faith, and compassion, leaving a legacy that will resonate through generations.

Gina was preceded in death by 7 brothers and sisters, her father, mother, one son, one granddaughter, and one grandson.

She is survived by her five children, 13 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren.

Gina's nurturing spirit and warmth were felt by all who knew her, and she dedicated herself to being a guiding light in their lives.

A woman of great faith, Gina was known as a strong Christian who spent her life as a devoted missionary, always eager to spread the word of God. She had a gift for connecting with others, never meeting a stranger and always making new friends wherever she went. Her passion for teaching was evident in her work with both children and adults in English classes, where she shared her knowledge and love for learning.

Those who had the privilege of knowing Gina will remember her as a loving, faithful individual who touched many lives with her kindness and strength. She will be missed dearly but remembered fondly for her unwavering spirit.

Gina McNearney

Safely Home

*I am home in heaven, dear ones;
Oh so happy and so bright.
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely at home in heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illumined,
Every dark and fearful glade.
And he came Himself to meet me
In the way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond death's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now while life remaineth
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come.*
