Missing Mama

*We awake each morning to start a new day, But the pain of losing you never goes away.
We go about the things we have to do, and as the hours pass, We think again of you.
We want to call you and just hear your voice. Then we remember that we have no choice,
For you are not there and now our heart cries Just to see you again, to tell you goodbye.
To say, "Mama We love you and w always will," and hope that much of you in us you've instilled.
The day that you left we just didn't know that you were going where we couldn't go.
And now all our memories of you are so dear, But gosh, how we miss you and wish you were here.
Who now can hear muse when we need to cry? It's so hard to tell you, "Mama goodbye."
Someday we know all will be well and we'll see you again with stories to tell
Of how you were missed and how we have grown and how good it is to finally be home.
Until then our memories of you we'll keep near,
and we'll pass them on to those who are dear.
We miss you, Mama!*

Obituary

Deloris Reynolds was born April 24, 1939, as the third of 13 children in Kansas City Missouri to Ennis Rollins and Lillie Fay Mooney. She passed away May 7, 2026 at her home surrounded by her children and grandchildren. Deloris was preceded in death by her parents, Ennis and Fay Rollins; daughter, Delores (DeeDee) Reynolds; brothers, Ennis Rollins, Jr., Prett Rollins, Sr., Carl Rollins, and Lonnie Rollins; sisters, Shirley King, Eva Jenkins, and LaPearl Nevils.

Deloris was educated in the Kansas City, Missouri school district. She was united in marriage to Edward Reynolds on June 1, 1957, with over 30 years of marriage with eight children born of this union.

Deloris accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior attending Church of the Living God, in her early years under her late uncle Reverend Joe Mooney's leadership. She later attended St. Stephen Baptist Church with her siblings. The highlight of the week was having breakfast with her siblings following church service.

Deloris was passionate about baking (famous for her homemade rolls), cakes, cookies and pies. She enjoyed shopping and caring for her growing family. Her children/grandchildren were the loves of her life, enjoying every moment they spent together. Delores lived a full life enjoying her beautiful family, close relatives and friends with entertaining backyard picnics, birthday parties and graduation ceremonies accompanied by sweet blues music from her favorite artist BB King.

Her daughter Pamela lovingly cared for her during her golden years along with other family members.

Deloris leaves to cherish her memories her seven children, Linda Johnson, Debbie Reynolds, Pamela Reynolds, Lisa Reynolds, Carolyn Mebane, Edward Reynolds (Rebecca) and Fayun Whitney (Daniel) all of Kansas City, Missouri. She also leaves her three brothers, Mack Rollins (Audrey), Caleb Rollins and Paul Rollins; two sisters, Rachel Hardin and Christine Hardiman; three sisters-in-law, Dora Rollins of Sumpter South Carolina, Elinora Reynolds Brown (Lee) of Aurora Colorado, and Betty Anne Funderburke of Denver Colorado; 17 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren 10 great-great grandchildren and a host of cousins and friends.
