In Loving Memory of Our

Wonderful Dad

You were one in a million, one of a kind,

Like a rare crystal, so hard to find.

Your sweet smile will be missed and your gentle heart.

It all happened so fast. it's so sad we had to part.

You were struggling so much, it's no surprise.

that God took your hand and whispered,

Just close your eyes.

I will take care of you now,

you can rest in peace.

Reunited with your loved ones, and out of pain.

A devastating loss but heaven's gain.

You will be truly missed and thought of everyday.

So many things, we didn't get a chance to say.

Your memories will last a lifetime

And fill us all with love.

Now it's your time to rest

And sleep tight with the angels up above.

Reflections of His Life

Mr. Henry P. Williams was born on May 2, 1935, in Greenville, South Carolina, to the late Edgar Williams and Emma Pinson Williams.

At a young age, Henry became a member of Springfield Baptist Church in Greenville, South Carolina.
After relocating to Columbia, South Carolina, he joined First Nazareth Baptist Church.

Henry attended Sterling High School. He then continued his education, earning a Bachelor of Science degree from Allen University. He later joined the United States Army, where he proudly served for five years. He retired from the Department of Corrections.

Henry was united in marriage to the late Ernestine Moses. He later was united with a devoted friend, Mable Pearson, who preceded him in death. This union was blessed with two children.

He was preceded in death by his brothers, Timothy Williams and Edgar Williams; and sisters, Cora Williams, Emma Williams, and Althamase Mayes.

Left to cherish his memories are his children, Shamala (Kenneth) Collier of Trenton, South Carolina, and Michael Pearson of Columbia, South Carolina; one grandchild, Shelby Collier of Rock Hill, South Carolina; and a host of honorary grandchildren, honorary great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other relatives, and caring friends.

Henry will be remembered for his faith, devotion to his family, and the love he shared with those around him. His memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Grandpa

When God created Grandpas,

He had a few things in mind.

He had to be warm and strong,

And funny, smart, and kind.

And brave and understanding too,

All of these things combined,

Of all the Grandpas on God's great earth

I feel so blessed that you were mine!
