

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Acknowledgements:

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!
The Young Family

A Tradition of Excellence. A Legacy of Caring.
1025 E. McMillan Street, Cincinnati, Ohio 45206
www.HerbWalker.com Phone (513) 251-6200

In Loving Memory

Cynthia Ann Young

October 10, 1961 – January 26, 2018

Service

Thursday, February 1, 2018 – 4:00 p.m.
Walker Funeral Home
7272 Hamilton Avenue
Mt. Healthy, Ohio 45231

Order of Service

Organ Prelude

Prayer – Pastor Billy Marshall, Jr.

Scripture Ken Bell

Old Testament Psalms 34: 17-19

New Testament: 1 Corinthians 15:51-55

Selection – Soloist (Funeral Home)

Acknowledgement of Cards

Telegrams and Condolences – Paula Marshall

Remarks (2 Minutes Please) – Karen Young

Pastor Billy Marshall, Jr.

Kiesha Wright

(Open up to a few more individuals)

Obituary – Lisa Marie Young

Selection – Paula Marshall

Eulogy – Pastor ?????

Benediction - ?????

Recessional – Clergy, Family, and friends

Repast

Family will meet with relatives and friends

Elegant Event Center

9832 Hamilton Avenue

Mt. Healthy, Ohio 45231

Obituary

Cynthia Ann Young was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, to the late Leroy Wallace and Catherine Young-Marshall on October 10, 1961. Cynthia was a loving and caring child who went out of her way to always care for others. Cynthia spent lots of time being cultivated by her mom and grandmother who she gleaned from and loved dearly. At an early age, she recognized that she was nothing without Christ, and made a decision to be born-again.

Cynthia grew up in Winton Terrace until the family moved to Columbus, Ohio. As the eldest of four (4) there was never a dull moment with her sister Lisa and brothers Doug and Billy! Love and laughter were established in their home and she regarded those memories fondly. Cynthia completed her schooling in Columbus and graduated from East High School, with honors. She stayed in Columbus for a short time but longed to be back with her Grandmother, Mary Magdalene Young. When she returned to Cincinnati, Cynthia met fell in love and married the late Donell Wright and from that union they had two (2) children, Kiesha Renee and Demetrius (Dee) Jamal. She committed herself to her babies and loved them devotedly.

Cynthia worked for the Cincinnati public school system as a teachers aid. She LOVED and treated the children as if they were her own and they in turn reciprocated the same feelings for her. This career choice became her passion! After 10 years of employment with the Public School system, Cynthia regretfully had to leave and joined the staff of the Good Samaritan Hospital. If you ask her closest friends, they will tell you that Cynthia worked hard and played harder; she said what was on her mind and did not mince her words. They were seasoned with love and she would never willingly offend anyone.

Cynthia loved life, family and close friends. She became a Nana and fell in love all over again with her precious grandchildren. She exhibited the same nurturing spirit that was taught to her by the matriachs of her family and her grandchildren knew they were secure. Cynthia lived life to the fullest and danced like no one was watching!

Fighting a long battle with cancer, Cynthia was ready to see Jesus and passed away peacefully in her favorite rocking chair on Friday, January 26, at 9:17 a.m. She fought valiantly and unafraid until the end. She knew she would be alright in the presence of the Lord.

Cynthia is survived by her two adoring children Kiesha Renee Wright and Demetrius Jamal Wright. Mother, Catherine Marshall of Brooklyn, NY, brother Douglas E. Young of Cincinnati, OH, sister, Lisa Marie Young of Columbus, OH, brother, Billy Marshall, Jr. (Paula Marshall), of Brooklyn, NY. Grandson, Tyshawn Wright and granddaughter Kyasia Wright and a whole host of uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Special thanks to Ken Bell who stayed and fought right by Cynthia's side until she opened her eyes in glory.

To Be Absent From The Body, Is To Be Present With The Lord!