

Sixty-one Summers

Dear mama, can you remember sixty-one summers, Blessed four, helped raise more. Whoever knew what was in store, leaves one to wonder, perhaps life is calculated by the number of summers.

On this day, we can all celebrate Faye. Make it top agenda so you'll always remember Linda, the love she gave and the decisions she made helped the lives she raised. Make it clear, can you remember, Dear mama sixty-one summers? Birthday in December

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Linda Faye Howell was born on December 2, 1960, in Mobile, Alabama. She was preceded in death by her parents: Geraldine Stallworth and Robert Howell; her son Cornelius; and nephew Khareem Howell.

Linda attended Murphy High School. In 1993 she moved to Cincinnati, Ohio to be closer to family which she embraced.

Linda did not have a church home but confessed the Lord as her savior during her early years. Linda was a beautiful soul which shined so bright through her smile. She was also stern and stood by her beliefs, nevertheless, she cared for many.

Linda enjoyed dancing like no other and had a beautiful singing voice as she sang her favorite melodies. She was a talented artist. She would do self-portraits and free-hand any art she saw. Linda was a talented beautiful soul that loved her family and friends. She will be missed very much.

Linda leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters: Karla A. Howell, Ayana T. Howell, and Shynitra R. Howell all of Cincinnati, Ohio; five grandchildren: Dre'Yana Johnston, Messiah Johnston, Shymon Howell, Jeremiah Howell, and Shymiah Howell; two special god-grandchildren: Malekhi and Tayliah; five sisters: Loretta Porter of Mobile, AL, Pennie Poole of Toledo, OH, Wanda Harper, LaDetrich Stallworth, and Tracy Howell; three brothers: Anthony Howell, Maurice Stallworth, and Gary Stallworth all of Cincinnati, OH; a host of other family and friends.
