IF TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME:

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.

Nora Jean Gaither, born on June 25, 1948, in Rock Hill, South Carolina, to the late Quincy B. Gaither and Moses C. Gaither, passed away on August 24, 2026, at Rock Hill Post Acute Care Center. She leaves behind a legacy of love, family, strength, and cherished memories.

Nora attended Emmett Scott School and earned her GED. She worked at Piedmont Medical Center, Magnolia Manor, Winthrop University, and as a cook at Ryan’s, among other places.

She was the beloved wife of Ronald Trueheart and a devoted mother who also opened her home to others in need. As the eldest of twelve siblings, caring for family was her nature. She took pride in being a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, mother-in-law, aunt, niece, sister, and friend. She often brought everyone together, creating moments that became treasured memories. Her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were especially dear to her, and watching her family grow brought her great joy.

Nora’s personality was unforgettable—sassy, strong-willed, and sometimes a little bossy, yet honest and outspoken. Beneath her tough exterior was a deeply loving woman who genuinely cared for those around her. She had a natural gift for making people feel comfortable and welcomed.

During her stay at Rock Hill Post Acute Care Center, she formed a special bond with the staff, who showed her kindness, compassion, patience, and support. Her family is grateful for their care, which became an important part of her final chapter.

Nora's life was centered on the people she loved and the lives she touched. She truly gave her time, strength, home, and heart generously. Her lessons, laughter, and spirit will live on through the family and friends she leaves behind.

In addition to her parents, Nora was preceded in death by her siblings: Nancy Beckham, Mozelle Turner, James Edward Gaither, Willie Gaither, Jerry Gaither, David Watkins, Ivette Watkins, and Joe Watkins.

Those Left to Cherish Her Memory, husband, Ronald Trueheart; siblings, Percilla Gaither, Jackie Erby, and Paulette Watkins; children, Yvonne Gomez (Tony Gomez, her favorite son-in-law), Edward Gaither (Myyokka Dunlap), Shawntese McCants, Mary Trueheart (Jon T. Jeter, her second favorite son-in-law), LaQuandra Watkins, and Brittany Watkins; grandchildren, Demetria Ervin, Anthony Gomez, Ti’Yona Gomez, Zy’Darris Baxter, Jamon Jeter, Santrezz Rineheart (her namesake), Isaiah Dunlap, Jalen Jeter, and Joanus Edwards; and bonus grandchildren Jatoreal Culp and Sarina Culp; great-grandchild, Keagan Gomez (“Little Nora Jean”); a host of beloved nieces, nephews, extended family members, friends, and all those who were blessed to know and love her.

Nora Jean Gaither was truly one of a kind. Her life was a gift, her love was a blessing, and her memory will remain in the hearts she touched. May the love she gave so freely continue to guide and comfort her family for generations to come. She will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.
