Obituary

And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”

Revelaton 21:3-4

Pat Warhop King, a beloved member of the Idabel community, passed away peacefully on March 24, 2026, at McCurtain Memorial Hospital. Born on March 17, 1948, in Idabel, Oklahoma, Pat entered this world as the cherished daughter of Floter and Lillie Mae Warhop.

A proud graduate of Booker T. Washington High School in the class of 1965, Pat dedicated many years to her professional career. She was employed by Safeway, where she made lasting contributions, and in recent years, she extended her compassion and care by working for a home health agency. Her commitment to helping others was a testament to her generous spirit.

Pat's life was richly filled with love for her family, friends, and dogs, which brought her immense joy and purpose. She was a devoted mother, sister, and friend whose warmth touched many lives.

She is survived by her loving sisters Mamie Cooper and Barbara (James) Craft of Clarksville, Texas, and Bernice Warhop of Oklahoma City. Her brothers Willie Warhop and David (Jean) Warhop of Idabel, Oklahoma; Donald Warhop of California; and Charles Warhop of Oklahoma City remain pillars of her enduring family legacy. Alongside them, a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends continue to cherish her memory and the profound impact she had on their lives.

Pat was preceded in death by her son, Darren (Stompy) Lamont Auber't; her parents Floter and Lillie Mae Warhop; her brothers Floter Warhop Jr., Ervin Warhop, Andrew Brown, and Robert Brown; and her sister Estella Jean Williams. Their memories live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

Order of Service

The program celebrating the life of Pat Warhop King will be under the direction of Brother Tom Knapp.
Closing Prayer, Brother Steve Chapman

Isaiah 33:24

And no resident will say: “I am sick.” The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error.

Revelation 21:4

And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you very much.
