Obituary

NAOMI RUTH AMOS, daughter of the late Luther Perry Amos, Sr. and Lilian Ashlee Amos, was born on July 1, 1950 in Baltimore, Maryland. Known to all as "Omi", "Ms. Naomi" or "Ms. Omi", she departed this life and was called to rest by her Heavenly Father on December 4, 2022.

Throughout her life, Naomi always displayed a warm, loving, caring and giving heart. She had and greeted all with a warm and vibrant smile. Naomi was a very respectful, caring and giving person who could bring out the best in you with the use of her wit, charm, character, big heart and essence with all whom she encountered.

Naomi was a proud woman, who prided herself on family and her strong commitment to the core values of family life, as well as a strong commitment to faith and the service to the Lord, for she and her siblings were the children of the late Reverend Luther P. Amos, Sr. Naomi loved the time when family would come together in celebration, especially the holidays. Christmas was always the best for her, as she had the opportunity to decorate.

While growing up in Baltimore, Naomi was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended school until the eighth grade but had to stop due to her becoming pregnant. Naomi, now a young woman and mom, went on to have three more children, a total of four. Using all that she learned from her own Mom, the late Lilian Amos, Naomi raised four wonderful children, using her wit, love, faith, strong family values, and survival instincts to provide for and give her family the best possible life that a young mother could provide. "Priceless!"

Naomi prided herself on keeping a clean, warm, and respectful home for her family and all who entered into it. She was big on education and the importance of gaining and obtaining a good one. As she raised her family, she too continued to pursue her own education by attending G.E.D. classes at Dundalk Community College where she went on to pass the test and obtain her G.E.D. in the Fall of 1980.

A young woman and mother now, Naomi went on through life taking on its ups and downs, and facing the trials and tribulations that life threw her way. She remained strong and vigilant in her faith and belief in God to survive and raise her children. Naomi from time to time took on and worked different jobs in the janitorial and housekeeping industry all while raising her kids.

BENEDICTION

Naomi will be remembered by all for keeping a clean house, her delicious cooking and meals, her love for seafood (especially crabs), her collection of paperback love novels, a long list of V.H.S. tapes, and being known for working with her hands. When Naomi wasn't doing housework, you could find her reading a novel or working on some electronic device around the house. Naomi is not only known for being a handyman around the house but also being very resourceful. Given tools like a sewing machine, sewing/crochet needles and fabric, she would mend clothing or crochet a blanket. She made and did the best she could given the tools and knowledge that she had, surrounded and supported with love.

Although her life may seem brief to some, Naomi Amos lived a full one. She leaves behind to celebrate and remember her life: her children, Anthony T., Delvin K. Sr., Sabrina A. and the late Ward L. Amos (Veneable); sisters, Mary, Ceciela (Blanks), the late Sylvia (Bryant), Esther (Beaufort), Angela (Burt); brothers, Harold and Luther P. Amos, Jr. She also leaves to remember and mourn a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins, as well as twenty grandchildren; three step-children, Patricia, Maria and Michael (Wyatt), twenty-seven great-grandchildren, a host of friends and acquaintances; along with her (L.O. Life) sweetheart and long-life friend, Thomas Delvin (Wyatt).

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures.

He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
