

Let not your

Heart

be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many

Mansions;

if it were not so, I would have told you.

I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come again, and receive you unto myself;
that where I am, there ye may be also.

Peace I leave with you,
my peace I give unto you;
not as the world giveth, give I unto you.

Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

Obituary

Marvin Eric Young, Sr., 76, was born on August 13, 1949, in Asheville, North Carolina, to the late Clyde Cohen and Maggie Virginia Young. On April 16, 2026, Mr. Marvin Eric Young, Sr. departed this life and gained his wings to be with the Lord.

Affectionally known as “Fats” to family and friends, Marvin attended the historically all-black high school South French Broad in Asheville, NC. Soon after, he joined a musical band, Inner Soul, as the lead drummer. He was the pulse of the band. Marvin loved music and getting “super fly”, putting on his nice clothes, and driving around town to visit family. He was a “house doctor” who could do anything to a home that needed work. He was also an expert painter. He took pride and all sincerity in his work.

Marvin was a father, grandfather, and great-grandfather who will be deeply missed. He was preceded in death by his mother, Maggie Virginia Young; father, Clyde Cohen; sister, Karen Young; and brother, Cecil Young.

Marvin leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Marin Eric Taylor (Latonya); two daughters, Rosemary Cuellar and Juanita Ellery; long-time girlfriend, Wanda Darby; as well as a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren whom he loved dearly.

We thank God for the joy and love Marvin brought to each one of our lives. Rest in Heaven, Pops.
