In Memory Of My Dad

If I could write a story, it would be the greatest ever told, of a kind and loving father, who had a heart of gold. I could write a million pages, and still be unable to say, just how much I love and miss him, every single day. I will remember all he taught me, I'm hurt but won't be sad, because he'll send me down the answers, and he will always be My Dad.

After a certain age, your parents slowly become your children. They ask simple questions, repeat stories, and depend on your patience the way you once depended on theirs. Very few understand this role reversal. What looks like innocence or inconvenience is really just coming full circle. Don't correct them harshly. Don't rush them. Care for them the way they once protected you. This is not a burden. It is repayment, quietly wrapped in love.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers,
that we saw sitting there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
we thank you so much for whatever part.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to the hospice staff

IN LOVING MEMORY

Glen M Marcusen

His Lord said unto him,Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things:
enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

Matthew 25:21
