

*God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.*

*But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.*

*Dorothy Jo

Dorothy Jo was born on April 2, 1925, to James Wilford “J.W.” and Effie Mae (Freeman) Richeson near Eldorado. Dorothy grew up in the Eldorado area and graduated from Lewis Hill School in 1943. After high school, Dorothy married Charles “Polk” Crozier on June 23, 1946, and they spent the next 61 years together until his death in 2007.

Polk and Dorothy raised four children in the Eldorado area and farmed together for 50 years. In addition to helping her husband farm, Dorothy also worked for the boat shop, the sewing factory, and later for Eldorado Public Schools until she retired. Dorothy was a faithful member of the Eldorado First Baptist Church for over 70 years.

Dorothy loved people and enjoyed being around them. She and her husband Polk, along with their children, cherished spending time with the Story and Adams families, and many other close friends and family. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, baking pies, garage sales, and playing cards. Her true happiness was found in God and her family. She treasured her family.
